GUIDE FOR PROSPECTIVE BUYERS

Buying at Auction

The following pages are designed to give you useful information on how to buy at Larasati Muse Investments Pte. Ltd - herein referred to as LARASATI - fine art auction.

Buyer's Premium

A buyer's premium is payable by the buyer of each lot at a rate of 22% of the hammer price of the lot. GST at the appropriate rate is payable on the hammer price and premium. These charges are explained in detail under Larasati's charges and GST at the back of this catalog.

1. BEFORE THE AUCTION

Pre-sale Estimates

The pre-sale estimates are intended as a guide for prospective buyers. Any bid between the high and the low pre-sale estimates would, in our opinion, offer a fair chance of success. However, all lots, depending on the degree of competition, can realise prices either above or below the pre-sale estimates.

Reserves

The reserve is the minimum price the seller is willing to accept below which the lot will not be sold.

Condition of Lots

Prospective buyers are encouraged to inspect the property at the pre-sale exhibition. Solely as a convenience, Larasati may provide condition reports. The absence of reference to the condition of a lot in the catalog description does not imply that the lot is free from faults or imperfections.

2. THE AUCTION

Conditions of Business

The Auction is governed by the Conditions of Business printed in this catalog. These Conditions of Business apply to all aspects of the relationship between Larasati and actual and prospective bidders and buyers. Anyone considering bidding in the auction should read them carefully. They may be amended by way of notices posted in the saleroom or by way of announcement made by the auctioneer.

Bidding at Auction

Bids may be executed in person by paddle during the auction, in writing prior to the sale or by telephone. All auctions are conducted in Singapore Dollars. Auction speeds vary, but usually average between 40 - 50 lots per hour.

Consecutive and Responsive Bidding

The Auctioneer may open the bidding on any lot by placing a bid on behalf of the seller. The Auctioneer may further bid on behalf of the seller, up to the amount of the reserve, by placing consecutive or responsive bids for a lot.

Bidding Increments

Bidding generally opens below the low estimates and advances in the following increments:

S$ 500 to	S$ 1,000 by	S$ 50
S$ 1,000 to	S$ 2,000 by	S$ 100
S$ 2,000 to	S$ 3,000 by	S$ 200
S$ 3,000 to	S$ 5,000 by	S$ 200
	or S$ 200 - 500 - 800
S$ 5,000 to	S$ 10,000 by	S$ 500
S$ 10,000 to	S$ 20,000 by	S$ 1,000
S$ 20,000 to	S$ 30,000 by	S$ 2,000
S$ 30,000 to	S$ 50,000 by	S$ 2,000
	or S$ 2,000 - 5,000 - 8,000
S$ 50,000 to	S$ 100,000 by	S$ 5,000
S$ 100,000 to	S$ 200,000 by	S$ 10,000
S$ 200,000	up by Auctioneer's direction

However, the auctioneer may change the increments during the course of the auction at his or her discretion.

Bidding in Person

To bid in person at the auction, you will need to register for and collect a numbered paddle before the auction begins. Proof of identity will be required.

The paddle is used to indicate your bids to the auctioneer during the sale. Should you be the successful buyer of any lot, please ensure that your paddle can be seen by the auctioneer and that it is your number that is called out. Should there be any doubts as to price or buyer, please draw the auctioneer's attention to it immediately. All lots sold will be invoiced to the name and address in which the paddle has been registered and cannot be transferred to other names and addresses.

Please do not mislay your paddle; in the event of loss please inform the Sales Clerk immediately. At the end of the sale, please return your paddle to the registration desk.

Absentee / Written Bids

If you cannot attend the auction, we will be happy to execute written bids on your behalf. A bidding form can be found at the back of this catalog. This service is free and confidential. Lots will always be bought as cheaply as is consistent with other bids, the reserves and Larasati's commission. In the event of identical bids, the earliest bid received will take precedence. Always indicate a "top limit" - the hammer price to which you would bid if you were attending the auction yourself. "Buy" and unlimited bids will not be accepted.

Telephoned absentee bids must be confirmed before the sale by letter or fax. Fax number for bids only: +65 6737 1859.

To ensure satisfactory service to bidders, please ensure that we receive your bids at least 24 hours before the sale.

Bidding by Telephone

If you cannot attend the auction, it is possible to bid on the telephone on lots with a minimum low estimate of S$ 4,000. As the number of telephone lines is limited, it is necessary to make arrangements for this service 24 hours before the sale. We also suggest that you have a maximum bid which we can execute on your behalf in the event we are unable to reach you by telephone. Bilingual staff are available to execute bids for you.

Successful Bids

The fall of the auctioneer's hammer indicates the final bid. The auctioneer will call out and record the name or "paddle" number of the buyer, if your written bid is successful, you will be notified immediately after the sale by post. Bidding may be reopened at the auctioneer's discretion.

Currency Conversion

Bidding is carried out in Singapore Dollars, but Larasati may provide a currency conversion board in the saleroom for the convenience of bidders. Please note that figures shown in foreign currencies are only approximates and do not represent exact exchange rates. Payment will be requested in Singapore Dollars.

3. AFTER THE AUCTION

Ltd.'s account at Hongkong and Shanghai Bank Corporation, Tanglin Branch, Singapore 229571. acct. No. 143-420180-001. As our global world expands and modernizes it is often at the expense of those sights and sounds which makes a place unique. Glitzy malls in Singapore, New York, Jakarta, London, Dubai, Beijing or Nairobi sell similar products, serve similar foods and look very much alike, sometimes making us wonder where in the world we are. Vendors selling their wares by foot are now rare site in some Asian cities and slowly disappearing in others as it is difficult to compete with the rising tide of globalization. Roadside stalls preparing favourite local cuisines are giving way to international fast food outlets. The loss of traditional lifestyle extends to loss of the rainforest with its rich biodiversity; the lungs of the world.

Collection of Maroeska Metz, The Netherlands

SGD 1,500 - 2,500

The early nineties saw the Dutch artist Maroeska Metz take the international world of design by storm with her signature 'curl' applied to cups, lamps, sofas and jewellery. Maroeska also focused on designing exhibitions for prominent museums and art galleries from Canada to Japan, which were featured in the international editions of Vogue, Elle, Architectural Digest and World of Interiors.

At an early age she proved herself to be creative as well as musically gifted. She took violin lessons with Mrs. Mieke Veltkamp-Scager, where the artist Willem Gerard Hofker also took lessons once a week. Hofker, who saw Maroeska as the ideal young model he had been looking for, liked to come early for his lessons so he could draw the young beauty while playing. Despite Maroeska's earliest memories of the artist as a 'strange old man drawing', she later got to know him as a very dear and sympathetic friend. These portrait drawings, now offered here at auction, were later given to her as a present by Hofker as a sign of their friendship.

“A painting of quality does not merely show off its surface beauty; what is important is that it reveals the depth of its content ... it must be filled with meaning. ... I am a great admirer of primitive art, which is always loaded with magical and meaningful elements...and if an art critic from the Philippines calls my work magic-decorative, I fully agree with such a description.”

- Widayat

Widayat is undoubtedly considered as one of Indonesia's most prominent artists alongside with Affandi, S. Sudjojono, and Hendra Gunawan. His creativity is difficult to match as evident in his decorative style oil paintings and spontaneous watercolours. His vast range of stories about nature, family life, myth, and rituals are depicted with the highest sense of artistic sensitivity, hence giving every piece he created have great inner strength.

The artist, who was born in Kutoarjo in 1923, and later self discovered his decorative style during his academic studies, proved during his long span of artistic career that he was proficient in many artistic media, techniques, and styles.

Many of Widayat's paintings portray scenes of daily life, as depicted in the present lot Sirkus (Circus). Executed in 1987, the painting portrays a traveling circus show in an open-air arena in Indonesia. Circus attraction such as this is one of the alternatives for many Indonesian families to spend their weekend together. This painting captures the moment when a charmer with red flag trying to get the attention of a trained lion in the middle of the arena surrounded by a wire fence, while two elephants are waiting for their turn to perform. Widayat's mastery to record this moment can be seen from his ability to expose variety of situations and expressions surrounding the circus performance. On the lower right, a mother standing near the wire fence holding a baby with two balloons is switching her gaze towards the audience, perhaps she is looking for her husband. On the other side of the fence, a father with white kopiah (traditional Indonesian hat) is busy talking with his daughter, also with balloons. It seems that balloons are more interesting to children than the lion in the arena, while hundreds of eyes watching the circus.

Through this spectacular painting Widayat shows his mastery as a social observer and pours all his effort and skill into the canvas to be enjoyed as a social portrayal of the commoners at that time.

CONDITIONS OF BUSINESS FOR BUYERS

We hereby inform all those participating in the auction, that it shall be held subject to the following conditions and that anyone taking part in it, hereby accepts these conditions as applicable.

Larasati as agent

As auctioneer, Larasati Muse Investments Pte. Ltd. here-in referred to as Larasati acts as agent for the seller. Unless otherwise agreed, sales of goods at this auction result in contracts made between the seller, through our agency, with the buyer.

Definitions of terms used in these conditions In the conditions set out below, some terms are used regularly that need explanation.

They are as follows:

- the "Buyer" means the person with highest bid accepted by the auctioneer;
- a "Lot" means any item deposited with us for sale at auction and, in particular, the item or items described against any lot number in any catalog;
- the "Hammer Price" means the charge payable by the auctioneer in relation to a lot;
- the "Buyer's Premium" means the charge payable by the buyer as a percentage of the hammer price;
- the "Reserve" means the amount below which we agree with the Seller that the lot cannot be sold;
- "Forgery" means a Lot constituting an imitation originally conceived and executed as a whole with a fraudulent intention to deceive as to authorship, origin, age, period, culture or source where the correct description as to such matters is not reflected by the description in the catalog and which at the date of the auction had a value materially less than it would have had if it had been in accordance with the description in the catalog. Accordingly, no lot shall be capable of being a forgery by reason of any damage and/or restoration work of any kind (including repainting);
- the "Insured Value" means the amount that Larasati in its absolute discretion from time to time shall consider to be the value for which a lot should be covered by insurance (whether or not insurance is arranged by us).

BEFORE THE SALE

Examination of goods

Prospective buyers are strongly advised to examine personally any goods in which they are interested, before the auction takes place. Condition reports are usually available on request.

Larasati is not responsible for any faults or defects in any lot or the correctness of:

- any statement as to the authorship;
- origin;
- date and age of the lot;
- attribution;
- genuineness;
- provenance and conditions of any lot.

Larasati does not make or give, nor has any person in the employment of Larasati any authority to make or give, any representation or warranty regarding the authorship, origin, date, age, size, medium, attribution, genuineness, description, provenance, condition or estimate selling price of any lot.

Catalog descriptions

Statements by us in the catalog or condition report, or made orally or in writing elsewhere, regarding the authorship, origin, date, age, size, medium, attribution, genuineness, provenance, condition or estimate selling price of any lot are merely statements of opinion given in good faith, and are not to be relied on as statements of definitive fact. Catalog illustrations are for guidance only, and should not be relied on either to determine the tone or colour of any item or to reveal imperfections. Estimates of the selling price should not be relied on as a statement that this price is either the price at which the lot will sell or its value for any other purpose.

Many items are of an age or nature which precludes their being in perfect condition and some descriptions in the catalog or given by way of condition report make reference to damage and/or restoration. We provide this information for guidance only and the absence of such reference does not imply that an item is free from defects or restoration nor does the reference to particular defects imply the absence of any others.

Buyers Responsibility

Buyers are responsible for satisfying themselves concerning the condition of the goods and the matters referred to in the catalog description.

AT THE SALE

Refusal of admission

Our sale takes place on our own premises or premises over which we have control for the sale, and we have the right, exercisable at our complete discretion, to refuse admission to the premises or attendance at the auction.

Registration before bidding

Every prospective buyer must complete and sign a registration form and provide identification before making a bid at auction. Prospective buyers should be aware that we usually require buyers to undergo a credit check.

Bidding as Principal

When making a bid, prospective buyer will be accepting personal liability, unless it has been agreed in writing, at the time of registration, that a bidder is acting as agent on behalf of a third party acceptable to us.

Commission Bids

If a prospective buyer gives us instructions to bid on his behalf, by using the form printed after the catalog entries, we shall use reasonable efforts to do so, provided these instructions are received not later than 24 hours before the sale. Bids should be placed in Singapore Dollars. Bids placed in other currencies will be converted to Singapore Dollars using the one month forward rate of exchange quoted to us by HSBC Bank at opening on the date of the auction and the Singapore Dollars figure may be subject to rounding. The Buyer's invoice will be in Singapore Dollars and we shall not be liable to the buyer for any loss suffered as a result of exchange rate movements after the date of the sale. If we receive commission bids on a particular lot for identical amounts, and at auction these bids are the highest bids for the lot, it will be sold to the person whose bid was received first. Commission bids are undertaken subject to other commitments at the time of the sale, and the conduct of the sale may be such that we are unable to bid as requested. Since this is undertaken as a free service to prospective buyers on the terms stated, we cannot accept liability for failure to make a commission bid. Prospective buyers should therefore always attend personally if they wish to be certain of bidding.

Telephone Bids

If prospective buyers make arrangements with us not less than 24 hours before the sale, we shall use reasonable efforts to contact the bidders to enable them to participate in bidding by telephone, but under no circumstances will we be liable to either the seller or any prospective buyer as a result of failure to do so.

Currency Converter

At this auction, a currency converter may be operated, based on the one month forward rates of exchange quoted to us by HSBC Bank at opening on the date of the auction. Bidding will however take place in Singapore Dollars. The currency converter is not always reliable, and errors may occur beyond our control either in the accuracy of the lot number displayed on the converter, or the foreign currency equivalent of Singapore Dollars bids.

We shall not be liable to the buyer for any loss suffered as a result of the buyer following the currency converter, rather than the Singapore Dollars bidding.

Video images

At this auction there will be a video screen. Mistakes may occur in its operation, and we cannot be liable to the buyer regarding either the correspondence of the image to the lot being sold or the quality of the image as a reproduction of the original.

The auctioneer's discretion

The auctioneer has the right at his absolute discretion to refuse any bid, to advance the bidding in such manner as he may decide, to withdraw or divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots and, in the case of error or dispute, to put an item up for bidding again.

Successful bid

Subject to the auctioneer's discretion, the striking of his hammer marks the acceptance of the highest bid and the conclusion of a contract for sale between the seller and the buyer.

AFTER THE SALE

Buyer's Premium

In addition to the hammer price, the buyer must pay us the buyer's premium at a rate of 22% of the hammer price of the lot.

Good and Service Tax (GST)

Unless otherwise stated in the catalog, GST is payable by the Buyer on the Hammer Price and premium at the rates prevailing on the date of the auction. And unless otherwise informed, all sums payable to Larasati by the buyer are exclusive of any goods and service tax or other value added tax (whether imposed is Singapore or otherwise) which shall, where applicable, be paid by the Buyer in addition to the sums otherwise payable, at the rate in force at the due time for payment or such other time as is stipulated under the relevant legislation.

Payment

Following the sale, the buyer must provide us with his or her name and permanent address and, if so requested, details of the bank from which payment will be made and then pay the full amount due (comprising the hammer price and the buyer's premium) within seven days after the date of the sale.

The buyer will not acquire title to the lot until all amounts due to us have been paid to us, even in circumstances where we have released the lot to the buyer.

Collection of Purchases

Unless we specifically agree to the contrary, we shall retain items sold until all amounts due to us, or to Larasati or to any of its other subsidiaries, have been paid in full. Items retained will be covered by our insurance from the date of the sale for a period of seven days or, if by then the goods have been collected, to the time of collection. After seven days or from the time of collection, whichever is the earlier, the lot will be entirely at the buyer's risk.

Packing and handling

We shall use all reasonable efforts to take care when handling and packing a purchased lot but remind the buyer that after seven days or from the time of collection, the lot is entirely at the buyer's risk.

Remedies for non-payment or failure to collect purchases

If the buyer fails to make payment within seven days, we shall be entitled to exercise one or more of the following rights or remedies:

- to charge interest at a rate per annum not exceeding (Hongkong and Shanghai Bank Corporation) base rate plus 4 per cent on the full amount due to the extent it remains unpaid for more than seven days after the date of the sale;
- to exercise a lien on any of the buyer's property which may be in our possession for any purpose and, following 14 days' notice to the buyer of the amount outstanding and remaining unpaid, arrange the sale of such property and apply the proceeds in discharge of the amount outstanding to us;
- where several amounts are owed by the buyer to us, or to Larasati, or to any of its other subsidiaries, in respect of different transactions, to apply any amount paid to discharge any amount owed in respect of any particular transaction whether or not the buyer so directs;
- to reject at any future auction any bids made by the buyer or on his behalf or obtain a deposit from the buyer before accepting any bids;

If the buyer fails to make payment within 21 days, we shall in addition be entitled to exercise any one or more of the following remedies:

- to issue proceedings on behalf of the seller against the buyer to recover the full amount due, together with the costs of such proceedings on a full indemnity basis and with interest, charged at 4% per annum above (Hongkong and Shanghai Bank Corporation) base rate;
- to cancel the sale of the lot or any other item sold to the buyer at the same auction;
- to arrange a resale of the lot publicly or privately, and, if this results in a lower price being obtained, claim the balance from the buyer together with any costs incurred in connection with the buyer's failure to make payment.

Failure to collect

Where purchases are not collected within seven days after the sale, whether or not payment has been made, we shall arrange storage at the buyer's expense, and only release the items purchased after payment has been made in full of storage, removal, insurance and any other costs incurred, together with payment of all other amounts due to us.

CONDITIONS OF BUSINESS FOR SELLERS

(ii) Unless we agree otherwise, we shall charge the seller a sum to cover insurance, at the rate 1% of either the hammer price or, if the lot is unsold, its insured value. If we arrange transport, we shall charge the seller an additional sum to cover the cost of transit insurance, which will vary according to the particular circumstances of each case. Although we shall suggest carriers if specially requested, we cannot accept any liability in this respect.

(iii) The lot will remain insured until the expiry of seven days after the sale. If the lot has not been sold, it will be at the seller's risk after that time.

The seller must notify the seller's insurers of the terms of this clause.

Seller's representations and warranties regarding the Lot

If any of (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) above is incorrect, the seller undertakes to and will indemnify Larasati and/or the buyer on a full indemnity basis against any liability, claims, costs or expenses whatsoever incurred as a result, whether arising in the relation to the lot or proceeds of sale or in dealing with any claim arising out of that respect.

AT THE SALE

Sale Arrangements

(i) We shall have complete discretion as to the way a lot is described and illustrated in the catalog or any condition report, the place and manner sale; the decision as to which person should be admitted to the auction, and as to which bids should be accepted; whether expert advice should be sought; and the combination or division of goods for sale.

(ii) Any estimate given, orally or in writing, is a matter of opinion only and is not an assurance in relation to the price that the lot will eventually fetch.

(iii) Upon signing the Consignment Agreement, the seller may not withdraw a lot from auction without the consent of Larasati. Should such lot be withdrawn, the seller agrees to indemnify Larasati on a full indemnity basis in respect of all costs and expenses incurred in putting up the lot for auction or against any liability, claims, costs or expenses howsoever incurred as a result of dealing with any claim arising out of that respect.

(iv) Larasati may at its sole discretion withdraw a lot from auction at any time if (a) we have any doubt as to its attribution or authenticity or as to the accuracy of the statements made by the seller in the Consignment Agreement, (b) there is any breach of these conditions or the terms and conditions of the Consignment Agreement or (c) we believe it would be improper to include the Lot in the sale.

(v) If we withdraw the lot, we shall charge the seller a equal to 10% of the insured value, plus an amount equal to our commission if the lot had been sold at the insured value, together with any applicable Government Service Charge and insurance and other expenses.

Conduct of Sale

(i) The lot will be sold subject to the reserve, which cannot be above the low estimate printed in the catalogue unless the reserve is agreed to in a currency other than Singapore Dollars, and the exchange rates fluctuate between the time the reserve is agreed and the day of the sale. In this case, unless we agree otherwise, the reserve shall be an amount equal to the Singapore Dollars equivalent based on the closing exchange rate on the business day immediately preceding the sale. We shall in no circumstances be liable if bids are not received at the level of the reserve. If we do so, we shall be obliged to account to the seller as if hammer price was equal to the reserve.

(ii) The seller may not bid for the lot nor employ any person to do so on the seller's behalf, although we shall have the right to bid on the seller's behalf up to the amount of the reserve.

AFTER THE SALE

Accounting

After the sale, we shall require payment in full from the buyer, including payment of the buyer's premium. Provided this has occurred, we shall remit to the seller an amount equal to the hammer price less all charges due to be paid by the seller, within 35 working days after the date of the sale, unless we have received notice that the lot is a forgery (as defined in the definition of terms used in these Conditions of Business). In the event of late payment by the buyer we shall make such remittance to the seller within seven days of receipt of such payment by the buyer. If for any reason we make payment to the seller of any amount before payment by the buyer, we shall acquire complete ownership of and title in the lot, save only that in the event that we are obliged to accept the lot back from the buyer on the basis that it is a forgery, the seller will refund to us all proceeds of sale that have been paid to the seller. Payment will be made in Singapore Dollars.

Non-Payment by the Buyer

If the buyer fails to pay the full amount due within 35 working days after the date of sale, we shall be entitled (i) on the seller's behalf, to agree special terms with the buyer for payment, storage and insurance, and (ii) to take any steps we consider necessary to collect the amount due from the buyer. However, we shall not be obliged either to remit the price due to the seller ourselves, nor to take any legal proceedings on the seller's behalf. We shall discuss with the seller the appropriate course of action to be taken to recover the purchase price from the buyer.

Forgeries

If within 6 (six) months of the date of the auction the Buyer satisfies us that the Lot is a Forgery, with the condition that claim must be accompanied with satisfactory evidence in the form of a written opinion of at least 3 (three) independent experts with knowledge on the related property, confirming that the lot is a forgery, then:

(i) if the Buyer at that time has not yet paid the full amount due, we shall have the right to cancel the sale and/or

(ii) if the Buyer has paid the full amount and if we have at the time not paid the seller the whole or part of the full amount due to the seller, then we will refund to the Buyer the purchase price of the lot and/or

(iii) If the Buyer had paid the full amount and if we at that time had also paid the Seller the whole or part of the full amount due, then the Seller must refund to us, on demand, the total amount paid. We shall then refund the total amount received from the Seller to the Buyer plus any balance due to the Buyer to pay back the full purchase price of the lot. The Buyer does not reserve the right to claim any interests on the purchase price paid by the Buyer. In the latter case we shall exercise a lien over any property of the Seller under our control as security for the amount due.

We reserve the right to seek for further expert opinion. There will be no refund if there is a conflict of opinion among the related experts. Larasati is not responsible for any faults or defects in any lot, including the genuineness of the work.

Unsold Lot

If any lot is unsold, or is not included in a sale, or is withdrawn from the sale for any reason, it must be collected from us within 7 days after we send the seller a notice requiring the seller to collect it. If any such lot remains uncollected for a period exceeding 7 days, a storage charge of S$ 30 per item per day will apply and additional charge will be made for insurance. The seller will not be entitled to collect the lot until all outstanding charges are met.

If any such lot is not collected within 30 days after the date of the sale or the date of the notice referred to above (whichever occurs first), it may be disposed of by us as we see fit, which may involve its removal to a third party warehouse at the seller's expense and its sale by public auction on such terms as we consider appropriate, including those relating to estimates and reserves. We shall then account to the seller for the proceeds of sale, having deducted all amounts due.

CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO BOTH BUYERS AND SELLERS

Notices

Any notice given under these conditions is to be in writing and, if given by post, will be taken to have been received by the addressee on the second working day after posting, or if the addressee is overseas, on the fifth working day after posting.

Law and Jurisdiction

These Conditions of Business are governed by Singapore law, which shall apply to their construction as well as to their effect. For our benefit, the buyer hereby submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Singapore courts.
