A Specialists' Guide to

HANDBAGS & ACCESSORIES

Letter From The Head of Handbags & Accessories, Asia Pacific

Dear Collectors,

Welcome to the autumn season! It is my extreme privilege to introduce Christie's Hong Kong Fall Handbags Auction. Together with my team, we have been diligently and wholeheartedly sourcing rare and special handbags from across the world. There is truly an item for every collector. From Hermès to Chanel, Louis Vuitton to Dior, from custom crocodile Birkins to Supreme trunks, I am confident that there is a style that will appeal to all manner of collectors.

I invite you to join the exhibitions in Singapore, Taipei or Hong Kong when the travel restrictions are mostly eased. If you are unable to attend these exhibitions, please browse the sale online with the QR codes below and reach out to our dedicated specialists for more information, images, and bidding advice.

On the following pages, you will find a user-friendly model by size chart where you can easily browse the bags that you have been eyeing for. Specialists' picks are the highlights of the sale with personal insights such as Why We Like It and What You Cannot Miss. There are also many stories behind each handbag, accessory, trunk, and lifestyle object that do not fit within this guide. So please do not hesitate to contact Christie's Handbags team and we are more than happy to share our knowledge and passion with you.

Warmest regards,

Winsy Tsang

Hermès Faubourg

One of the most coveted edition of the Hermès Birkin in Christie's auctions is none other than this Limited Edition Faubourg Sellier Birkin. It's inspired by the heritage of the legendary flagship boutique located at 24 rue du Faubourg Saint-Honoré in Paris. The first two Faubourg Birkin produced in 2019 featured Day and Night colorations in Gold and Blue, followed by two new versions: So Black and Snowy White in 2021. This unique creation mimics the Maison's daytime facade with creative craftsmanship and vivid imagination. Designed with both heritage and modernity in mind, collectors will love the masterful details in the structure such as the windows and awnings crafted from exotic skin and multiple calf leathers. The clochette is made with orange leather as a tribute to the classic orange shopping bag. The Faubourg Birkin also features two new innovations including a 20cm size and construction of the Birkin Sellier.

Work of Art

Crafted from natural Bog Oak wood and fauve barenia leather, the Kellywood features a front flap of barenia leather, barenia accents, white contrast stitching, two straps with center toggle closure, single rolled handle and a removable strap. This finest oak wood grows in bog, absorbing moisture and leaves the surface with a mysterious dark green sheen.

The iconic Kelly bag is dressed in wood for the first time, giving rise to this exceptional version. Kellywood celebrates the encounter of two types of expert craftsmanship: saddlery leatherwork and joinery. The fruit of an inventive procedure, almond shaped wooden hulls from a wood and metal marquetry, revealing an overlay chevron motif in aluminum that seamlessly becomes one with the material.

Bring your Picnic to Picnic

The Hermès Picnic Kelly has been one of the most sought after handbags for collectors since its debut. The Picnic story was inspired by the Hermès annual theme of 2011: Hermès, Contemporary Artisan. It is a natural representation of the iconic Kelly bag, weaved with wicker by the most skilled craftsmen. The mini Kelly version emerged in the market in early 2019, and unsurprisingly became a sensation for mini-sized handbags collectors.

The release of the Birkin version of the picnic story indicates that this classic yet innovative series never shy away from the spotlight since its very first debut a decade ago. The adorable Picnic Birkin in the picture highlights a fresh green shade called Menthe, which mimics the fresh colour of Basil. This new Picnic Birkin will surely shine in this auction.

Park Passifolia Picnic Basket Set:

Basketry is a traditional art that involves weaving vegetable fibers. In France, a small group of artisans carry on this local tradition. The woven wicker of the picnic basket contrasts with the smooth bridle leather of the handles. This basket contains every essential for an outdoor gourmet getaway: 8 Passifolia porcelain dessert plates, 4 Intervalle crystal glasses and 4 Grand Attelage cutlery sets (fork, knife and spoon). For easy storage after the meal, the plates and cutlery are placed in waterproof and washable pockets. The basket's lid also serves as a breadbasket and allows you to bring other accessories along on your outing.

Fancy Rainbow Or Sunset?

Bolide was designed in 1923 by Émile Hermès for drivers who enjoyed traveling with style. Émile Hermès introduced zippers to France after World War I. He incorporated Hermès leather making craftsmanship with zips and created the world's first zipped handbag: Bolide. Till today, there have been a variety of different designs of this model, including a series of limited edition with rainbow color palettes from Spring 2020. Hermès used multiple tones to create rainbow-like shades to mimic different timings of a day, from sunrise to sunset. This design also pays tributes to speed racing cars tracks with its geometric lines, making Rainbow Bolide the most energetic handbag.

Horse Shoe Stamps

For handbag collectors, a custom-made Hermès bag is considered the ultimate status symbol. Custom-made pieces, known as HSS bags, feature a special horseshoe stamp to the left of the Hermès stamp inside the bag. The emblem might be petite, but it increases the value of the bag significantly. The special custom-made service is offered to only a select number of top collectors. For each leather and each season Hermès designates which colors will be offered in which leathers. Hermès lists which specific leathers will be used for each design feature such as linings and handles. This bespoke creations typically take six months or more to arrive — although some collectors have to wait for as long as three years.

Precious Exotic Skin

Precious skin, such as alligator and crocodile, are also known as exotic skin because they are not animal skins originated Europe. At present, Hermès only uses three types of crocodile skin allowed by the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species (CITES): Alligator, Niloticus crocodile and Porosus crocodiles.

Porosus Crocodile is considered to be the most desirable and precious exotic skins amongst collectors of Hermès. Recognized for their nearly symmetrical scales, Porosus Crocodile skins feature a tiny pore on each scale. This small, but significant, distinction sets Porosus Crocodile bags apart from those crafted from Alligator or other collectible exotics.

Niloticus is from the Nile region of Africa. The scales of the skin in the center are relatively square in shape, and gradually become rounded to the sides. Some scales have natural dots, while others are not.

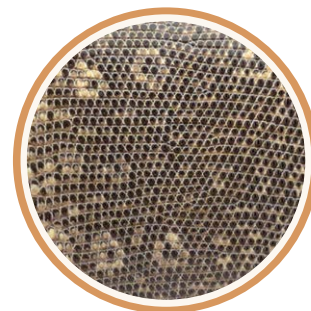

Alligator is originated from Mississippi, USA. The scales of the skin are more irregular, and the gaps between the scales are more obvious. The scales in the center are more square and the sides are more rounded. There are no small spots on the scales of the skin.

All You Know About Lizard

Hermès exotic lizard skin is precious, rare and exquisite. This skin is identifiable by a ‘-’ as Niloticus lizard skin, or ‘=’ sign as Salvator lizard skin, next to the Hermès logo. The screening criteria is extremely strict, and the size of lizard skin is small and often not even enough to make small leather goods. Therefore, Hermès lizard skin handbags are very rare in the market, and the size of lizard skin handbags is often relatively petite. This is why handbags made of lizard skin are very rare. At present, the largest size of the lizard skin handbags sold by Hermès is the 25 cm Birkin bag and Kelly bag.

Hermès craftsmen are never willing to compromise on the quality of materials. Therefore, due to the scarcity and preciousness of large size and flawless lizard skins, they often use flawless smaller lizard skins to embellish metal accessories for classic handbags for a great finishing touch. Among all the styles made of lizard skin, the Ombré lizard skin retains the natural texture with raindrop-shaped dots on the skin, and the amazing gradient and glossy effect of the skin is perfect for those who love rare materials. Lizard handbags have always been a show stopper and one of the most sought-after lots for collectors in the auctions.

THE GODFATHER OF STREETWEAR - SUPREME

The brand was founded by James Jebbia in 1994. The first Supreme store opened in an old office space on Lafayette Street in Lower Manhattan in April 1994. It was designed with skaters in mind with a unique design for the store layout: by arranging the clothes around the perimeter of the store, a large central space permitted skaters with backpacks to skate into the store and still feel comfortable, this store had its core group of skaters who served as its team in 1994.

In 2004, a second location was opened on North Fairfax Ave in Los Angeles, California, which is nearly double the size of the original New York City store and features an indoor skate bowl. In 2016, which is opened other locations include Paris and London, which opened every trendy place in Tokyo in 2011.

Along the way, Supreme stocks its own clothing label fashion world street cred has been bolstered by the high-profile collaborations with the house of luxury with Louis Vuitton. For many in fashion, their first glimpse into the secretive world of Supreme, which has become a kind of shorthand for authenticity, immediacy, speed, and deftness in its way of doing business. Initially, Supreme made only a few T-shirts. Then their customers arrived wearing Carhartt matched with Louis Vuitton, Gucci with Levi's and Comme des Garcons in 2012. Soon Supreme tried a cotton hoodie, realizing that if it was simply made a little better than what was out there, skaters would be willing to pay a little more for it. All based on the love for fashion with skateboarding.

Louis Vuitton's traditional monogram coated canvas steamer trunk received a bold makeover from Virgil Abloh for the luxury giant's Spring/Summer 2021 collection. Splashed with color and inspired by graffiti, the limited edition trunk stands as one of the trailblazing fashion designer's most recognizable pieces.

Virgil Abloh was an American fashion designer and entrepreneur. He joined Louis Vuitton as Creative Director of menswear collection in 2018, making him the first person of African descent to lead the brand's menswear line. He had constantly inspired the world of fashion and given people the courage to dare, to dream, to create. Although the fashion world is saddened by the passing of this creative genius in 2021, his talent and passion will be remembered forever.

The Louis Vuitton Trunks Collection From An Important Private Japanese Collector - Part II

CHRISTMAS ORNAMENTS TRUNK

After a successful sale of Part I in Spring, here we present another five exquisite trunks in Autumn auction.

Only 5 were produced in the world, this christmas ornaments trunk merged savoir faire of trunk making and culture heritage. The trunk is made with tailored compartments to store 53 LV-signed ornaments with different colors, sizes and shapes.

The history of French glass ornaments can be traced back to 1858, in Lorraine, France. When Louis Vuitton introduced the Christmas ornaments trunk, the company worked with CIAV (International Center for the Glassworker's Art) to create the traditional yet stunning glass ornaments, which was once obsolete.

Isn't it fascinating to decorate your christmas tree with history and heritage?

Tea ceremony trunk

This Japanese private collector was fond of the Japanese traditional tea ceremony, and started collecting tea ceremony utensils. Louis Vuitton team custom-made a Damier trunk to store the tea ceremony objects. Choosing Damier canvas is to match with the Japanese traditional room - Washitsu (和室).

In 2010, former football player Hidetoshi Nakata was the director of Take Action Foundation, and together with Louis Vuitton, they organized a fundraising charity gala. The collector won a pair of black tea bowls made by Japanese artist Kyosuke Hayashi to complement the tea ceremony trunk.

This trunk was featured in Louis Vuitton's official Instagram page back in 2016 for the LV Tokyo Expo exhibition.
