

Art contemporain

1 December 2022, Paris

Auction overview

The Contemporary Art sale on December 1 will be the opportunity to close the year by offering a fine selection of works by artists who marked the art of the 1950s in Paris and Europe: from Jean Dubuffet to Georges Mathieu, via Antoni Tàpies to even Jean Paul Riopelle, all the best-known names from the post-war European art scene will be represented, and most of them will be offered for the very first time at auction.

This sale will also give pride of place to internationally renowned contemporary artists such as Peter Saul, David Hockney and Kehinde Wiley. Following the national tribute paid to Pierre Soulages following his death on October 26, Christie's is pleased to present for the first time at auction an outrenoir from 1989 which will be the top lot of the sale. A captivating painting by Chinese artist Chu Teh-Chun from the 1990s, perfectly capturing the artist's ability to make the connection between his origins and the discovery of new Western techniques, will also be leading the sale. A selection of works from the Le Jeune collection: A Collecting Legacy will bring together works discovered by Jacqueline and Mark Le Jeune as well as by their descendants, such as works by Niki de Saint Phalle and Jean Tinguely, friends of the couple, but also works from the contemporary art scene: by Yoshitomo Nara or Chiharu Shiota. 8 works from the Luigi and Peppino Agrati collection will also be the driving force of this sale, including an impressive mosaic after Fernand Léger.

La vente d'Art Contemporain du 1er décembre sera l'occasion de clôturer l'année en offrant une belle sélection d'œuvres d'artistes ayant marqué l'art des années 1950 à Paris et en Europe : de Jean Dubuffet à Georges Mathieu , en passant par Antoni Tàpies et même Jean Paul Riopelle, tous les noms les plus connus de la scène artistique d'après-guerre seront représentés, et pour la plupart d'entre eux, seront offerts pour la toute première fois aux enchères.

Cette vente fera aussi la part belle aux artistes contemporains de renommée internationale comme Peter Saul, David Hockney ou Kehinde Wiley. Suite à l'hommage national rendu à Pierre Soulages suite à sa disparition le 26 octobre dernier, Christie's est heureuse de présenter un outrenoir inédit de 1989 qui sera le lot phare de la vente. Une toile captivante de l'artiste chinois Chu Teh-Chun des années 1990, capturant parfaitement la capacité de l'artiste à faire le lien entre ses origines et la découverte des nouvelles techniques occidentales, sera également un moteur de la vente. Une sélection d'œuvres de la collection Le Jeune: A Collecting Legacy rassemblera des œuvres découvertes par Jacqueline et Mark Le Jeune ainsi que par leurs descendants, comme des œuvres de Niki de Saint Phalle et Jean Tinguely, amis du couple, mais également des créations plus contemporaines de Yoshitomo Nara ou Chiharu Shiota. 8 œuvres de la collection Luigi et Peppino Agrati seront également le moteur de cette vacation, incluant une impressionnante mosaïque d'après Fernand Léger.
