

Original Busch Parts Cut Jerome Foods Vacuum Pump Maintenance Costs

The job of any good purchasing agent is to get the best price, quality, and delivery for their parts. And that's exactly what Jerome Foods thought they got, when they purchased imitation exhaust filters for their Busch vacuum pumps. However after installation, Bob Wieckowicz, maintenance supervisor at Jerome Foods, noticed that the vacuum pumps were beginning to smoke.

They found the culprit to be the exhaust filters which were plugging up. The smoke emission problem was solved by replacing the filters with original Busch exhaust filters. Purchasing filters from Busch has also lowered their maintenance costs because Busch exhaust filters last 3 to 4 times longer than imitation filters.
