SECTION 1 (SOVIET)

"A" USSR. Possible Soviet Intentions. [redacted] the Soviet Union's main objective at the prospective CFM will be to obtain the total withdrawal of US forces from Europe. The USSR will attempt to obtain the neutralization and disarmament of Germany and may be willing to sign an Austrian Treaty. If the USSR achieves its objective of a US troop withdrawal, a Satellite attack on Yugoslavia will be postponed until these troops have actually left. A Satellite attack on Yugoslavia will take place in April 1951 if the USSR receives the impression during the negotiations that the attack will not result in a general war. [redacted] Communist China is bringing pressure to bear on the USSR to produce a new crisis in order to relieve the Korean situation. [redacted]

"C" KOREA. USSR May Be Aiding in NK Rehabilitation. Radio Pyongyang recently carried the text of a letter from a Korean worker at an "unidentified factory" thanking a Soviet engineer who assisted in the rehabilitation of a wrecked factory. [redacted]. COMMENT: It has been assumed that Soviet civilians had been withdrawn from Korea and this Pyongyang broadcast is the first indication to the contrary. It is unknown whether this report is an isolated instance or an indication of a Soviet rehabilitation attempt on a modest scale in North Korea.
