

Notice of End of Service Support for Discontinued MT-4R and MT-4D Products

On May 30, 2006, Daniels Electronics Ltd [doing business as Codan Radio Communications] notified customers through the website that the MT-4D Digital P25 radio (which superseded the MT-4R platform) had reached its manufacturing end of life and was superseded by the MT-4E platform of products.

After eight years and effective immediately, the following modules have reached the end of their service lives and Codan Radio Communications will no longer provide software or hardware support for them.
