A woman with long, wavy brown hair is sitting on a dark leather sofa. She is wearing a sleeveless, dark green, satin-like dress with a small decorative element at the waist. She is looking towards the camera with a slight smile. The room is dimly lit, with a warm, golden light source from the left, possibly a window, creating a soft glow. In the background, there is a wooden table with several decorative items, including a tall, slender vase, a round vase, and a red vase. The overall atmosphere is elegant and sophisticated.
