

Volunteer Today for a Better Tomorrow

Community Volunteer Fair Saturday, November 17, 2001

We believe that volunteering builds a stronger community. It enriches the lives of everyone who makes the commitment. That's why Tektronix and VolunteerWorks are giving you an opportunity to get involved. We invite you to take time on Saturday, November 17, to learn how you can help. Because volunteering today will create a better tomorrow.

Community Volunteer Fair

November 17, 2001

10 AM - 3 PM

Tektronix Beaverton Campus - Building 38

Complimentary Refreshments

Directions: Jenkins Road to Karl Braun Drive | Follow Karl Braun to Zworykin | Building 38 will be on the right side

More Than 25 Participating Non-Profit Agencies Including:

Children's Cancer Association
Friendly House
Make-a-Wish® Foundation of Oregon
Oregon Literacy, Inc.
Oregon Guide Dogs

Fun Events for the Whole Family

Meet local firefighters and tour a fire engine
Tour Washington County Police squad cars
Meet McGruff the Crime Dog and create your own McGruff badge
Sign a poster that will be taken to New York City
Create CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) greeting cards

St. Vincent de Paul Food Drive Official Drop Site

Desired foods include proteins and boxed meals

For more information about this event, please visit the following web sites: www.tektronix.com or www.volunteerworks.org

VolunteerWorks

© Tektronix, Inc. 2001. All rights reserved. TEKTRONIX is a registered trademark, and the Tektronix logo is a trademark of Tektronix, Inc. All others are properties of their holders.

Tektronix®

Enabling Innovation