
Leukemia Care," on May 18; "High Blood Pressure Control at the Work Place—Update '84," on May 23; and "Futuristic Women's Health Care: New Trends in Gynecological and Obstetrical Nursing," on June 8. For additional information contact Marietta P. Stanton, Assistant Professor and Director, Continuing Nurse Education, University at Buffalo, State University of New York, Hayes Annex D, 3435 Main Street, Buffalo, NY 14214, (716) 831-3291.

CONFERENCE ON NURSING ANNOUNCED

The University of South Florida College of Nursing and Delta Beta Chapter, Sigma Theta Tau, will cosponsor "Research—The Basis for Nursing in the Eighties," on May 18, 1984, at the University of South Florida in Tampa, Florida. The $45 fee includes registration, lunch, and a copy of the proceedings. Six contact hours are offered. For additional information contact Minerva I. Applegate, EdD, RN, University of South Florida College of Nursing, Medical Center, Box 22, 12901 N 30th Street, Tampa, FL 33612, or call (813) 974-2191.

CONFERENCE ON PERINATAL INTENSIVE CARE

The Louisiana Committee for the Humanities, the Louisiana Nurses Association of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, and Northwestern State University will sponsor "Bioethical and Developmental Frontiers in Perinatal Intensive Care" on May 10-11, 1984, in Shreveport, Louisiana. On May 10, a $50 fee is applicable; there will be no charge for attendance on May 11. For more information contact Chandice C. Harris, RN, MSN, Northwestern State University, College of Nursing, Graduate Studies and Research in Nursing Program, 1800 Warrington Place, Shreveport, LA 71101, (318) 425-2471.