Errata

In ANS, vol 23, no 1, in the article entitled "The Vulnerabilities of Teenage Mothers: Challenging Prevailing Assumptions," by Lee SmithBattle, RN, DNSc, the following should be noted. On page 35, the sentence should be: "In exploring teenagers' transitions to mothering as members and participants of families and communities, I discovered how teens reappraised the past, present, and future from their new perspective as mothers^{9,49}" (rather than "it was discovered"). On page 37, the statement should be: "Rather than abandoning or blaming teen mothers, we should consider how our relationships with them as clinicians and citizens empower or diminish them."
