

A Journal of the Gesellschaft Deutscher Chemiker

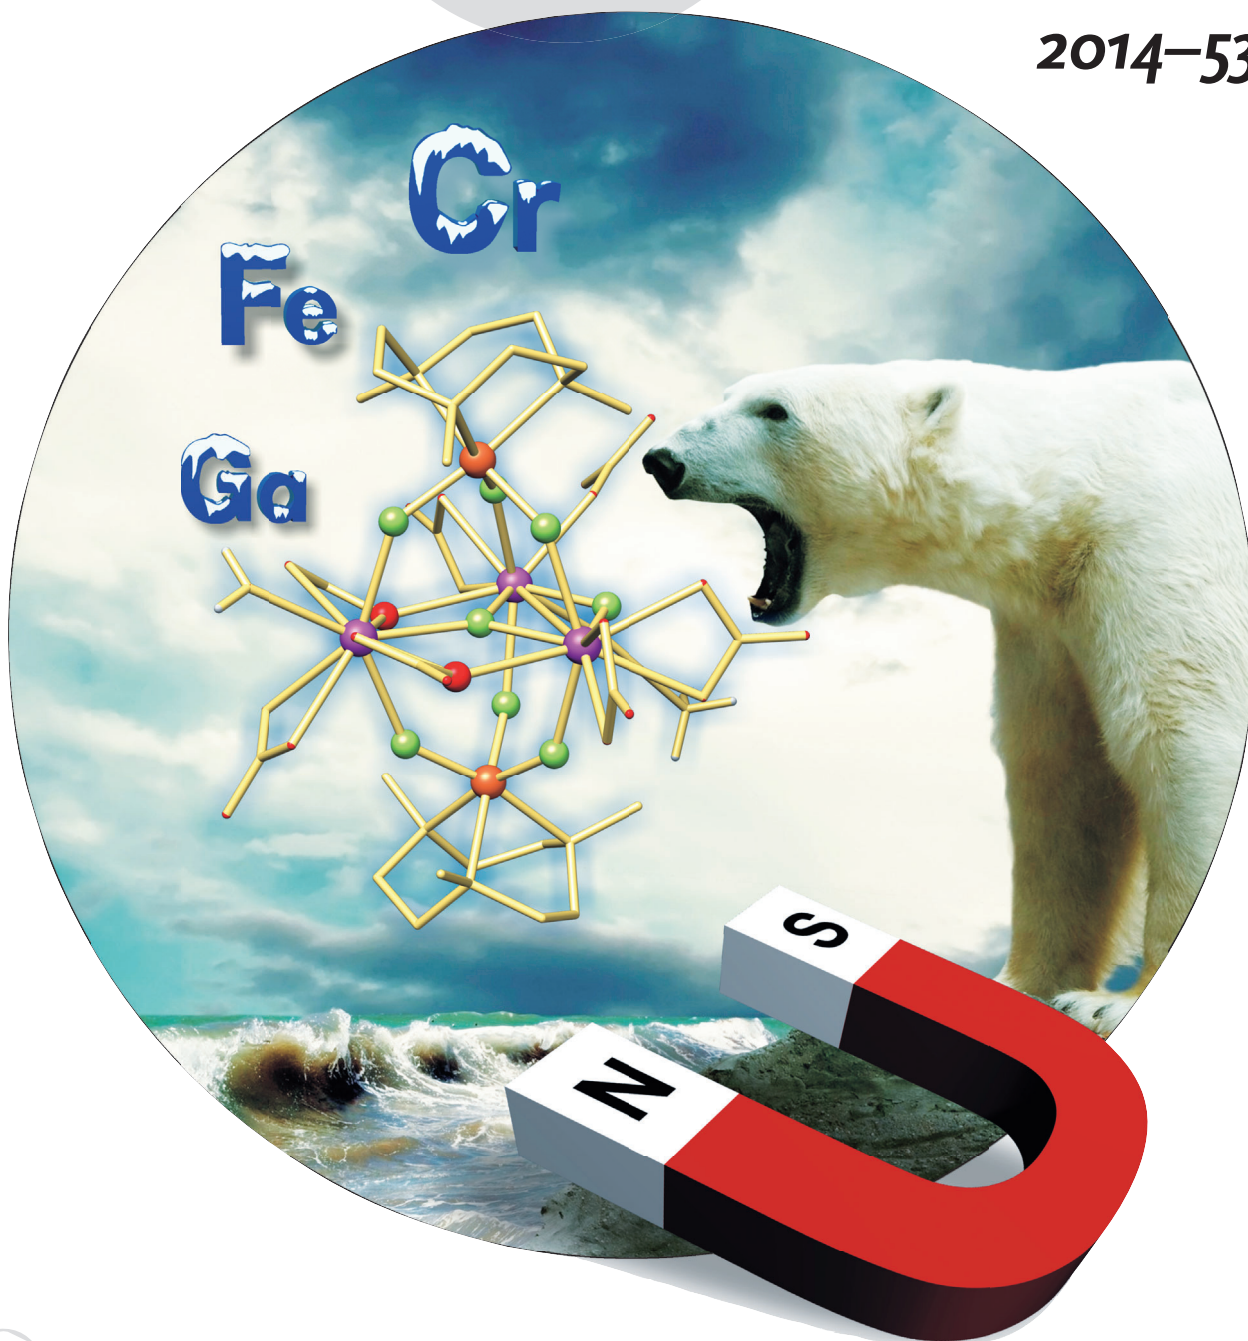

Angewandte Chemie

GDCh

International Edition

www.angewandte.org

2014–53/9

Molecular refrigerators ...

... consisting of unusual fourth-row metal-ion–lanthanide complexes with bridging fluoride ions are presented by M. Evangelisti and J. Bendix in their Communication on page 2394 ff. The combination of lightweight auxiliary ligands and tunable interactions by choice of metal ion makes these systems interesting modules for low-temperature cooling applications.

WILEY-VCH