'The relative contribution of affinity and efficacy to agonist activity: organ selectivity of noradrenaline and oxymetazoline with reference to the classification of drug receptors' by Terry P. Kenakin.

On page 132 of this paper a heading and sentence were omitted from the bottom of the right hand column. The missing section is given below:

Agonist $K_d$ determinations

Estimates of the equilibrium dissociation constant ( $K_d$ ) of the full agonists were made by the method of Furchgott (1966).
