

Retraction: The following article from British Journal of Pharmacology, 'Ion channel blocking profile of compounds with reported torsadogenic effects: What can be learned?' by A. Ouillé, P. Champéroux, E. Martel, F. Ferro, D. Bouard, S. Richard, S. Richard and J.-Y. Le Guennec (<http://dx.doi.org/10.1111/j.1476-5381.2011.01304.x>), posted online on 8 March 2011 on Wiley Online Library (<http://onlinelibrary.wiley.com>), has been retracted by agreement between the journal Editor in Chief, Professor J.C. (Ian) McGrath and Blackwell Publishing Ltd. The retraction has been agreed due to duplication of research data from the following article in Journal of Pharmacological and Toxicological Methods, 'A step towards characterisation of electrophysiological profile of torsadogenic drugs' by Pascal Champeroux, Aude Ouillé, Eric Martel, John Sinclair Lawrence Fowler, Anne Maurin, Serge Richard and Jean-Yves Le Guennec (<http://dx.doi.org/10.1016/j.vascn.2011.01.001>), published online on 9 January 2011 on Science Direct.
