AARC Pays For '94

Third Year Keeps Charming

THE ALLIANCE OF ARTISTS AND RECORDING COMPANIES (AARC) announced it has distributed to featured recording artists their Sound Recordings Fund checks for 1994. Within the next few months a similar distribution will be made to AARC's record company claimants.

"I'm pleased to announce that 1994 is the third consecutive year for which AARC will have successfully distributed royalty funds to featured artists and recording companies," said Jean Milbauer, AARC's acting executive director. "In addition, we've recently completed the Sound Recordings Fund's universal settlement for 1995—a process that took just under six weeks to negotiate."

Added Jay Cooper, AARC board co-chair (representing artists), "That we were able to settle another year's fund so quickly, and without incurring any litigation costs, is a real tribute to all the parties involved. With a membership of just over 130 companies and 1,400 artists, AARC is now respected within our industry as an important and viable organization. As a result, the checks that went out today represent true financial compensation."

AARC was formed by the recording industry and the artist community three years ago in response to passage of the Audio Home Recording Act of 1992, which requires that manufacturers and importers of digital audio recorders and blank digital audio recording media pay royalties into the U.S. Copyright Office. Two-thirds of these royalties are placed into a Sound Recordings Fund for distribution to featured artists and sound recording copyright owners.

Mercury Does Trifecta

FIFTY PERCENT OF CAPRICORN Records has been obtained by PolyGram-owned label Mercury Records, which in recent weeks has also assumed marketing and promotion and other support services for Def Jam/RAL and also a joint venture with world beat label Triloka Records for crossover promotion functions.

By adding Nashville, TN-based rock label Capricorn, Mercury augments its presence in still another genre. The deal calls for Mercury to help promote, market, manufacture and distribute Capricorn product, including Capricorn's recent breakout artists the Freddy Jones Band, Ian Moore, 311 and Widespread Panic. Other artists on Capricorn include CAKE, The Fiji Mariners, Lynard Skynard,

Spotlight

Staying In The Black With MCA

By Gil L. Robertson IV

MCA RECORDS HAS ONE OF THE MOST EXPANSIVE R&B rosters in the urban music arena. With a line-up that includes long-established players like Patti LaBelle, B.B. King, Al Green and New Edition, along with soul/pop sensations Jodeci, Mary J. Blige and Soul For Real (all of whom record for the MCA-distributed label Uptown) and an impressive new artists line up that features Immature, Nonchalant, Passion and Jessie Powell, the urban division at the venerable label has the complete market covered. After surviving a period of severe reversal of fortune, the label today has implemented a new management style to take better advantage of its immense talent line-up. Headed by industry veterans David Hareston and Hank Shockley, the label has adopted a corporate philosophy that places an emphasis on artists relations and development while also showing special attention to the all-important promotion machinery.

"The problems that MCA have had are not very different from those experienced by labels across the board," said Hareston during a recent interview with Cash Box. "It's unfortunate, but in recent years that urban sector of the music industry has suffered from a lack of vision and control which in turn has prevented labels from capturing the levels of success they had enjoyed in the past.

ON THE MOVE

Williams

DuBois

Innerst

Doebele

Mark Williams has been named vp of international for PolyGram Holding, Inc. (PHI). Williams will oversee all international marketing and promotions functions for Mercury, Island, Motown and Def Jam, working with each label to maximize the sales of U.S.-signed acts in all territories in coordination with PolyGram local and regional management. He will also coordinate activities of the labels' international teams. Most recently, Williams was joint managing director of Vision Music, a label he created, and prior to that he was director/general manager of Arista UK from 1992-1994. From 1989-1992, he was general manager of Virgin Records UK, and came to that company after three year stint at CBS Records. He joined Epic Records in 1984. ■ The Recording Industry Assn. of America (RIAA) has announced a trio of promotions. First off, Neil Turkewitz has been upped to exec. vp of international from his post of sr. director of international. Since joining the trade organization in February of 1987, Turkewitz has been responsible for directing RIAA efforts to promote adequate copyright protection worldwide for U.S. record companies. He has been active in the negotiations for many international agreements leading to such protections and greater market access for American product. Jennifer L. Bendall has been promoted to sr. vp of government affairs, upped from vp in the department. She joined the RIAA in April 1991 and has served as the association's principal liaison to the federal government and is credited with leading the recording industry's recent efforts to secure passage of the Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995. Bendall also has been active in the fight against censorship and passage of the Audio Home Recording Act of 1992. And finally, Paul Russinoff has been promoted to assoc. general counsel/director of state relations for the association. Handling state legislative issues has been Russinoff's bailiwick since joining the RIAA in August, 1993. He has worked on issues regarding censorship and worked with retailers, legislators and concerned citizens on various free speech issues. He is serving on the litigation coordinating committee for constitutional challenge to the recently enacted Communications Decency Act. ■ Tripp DuBois has joined Capitol Records as director of marketing, heading up the label's tour marketing & artist development areas. DuBois will be responsible for touring plans in conjunction with the label's marketing group, liaising with artist management and capitol's regional sales and promotion staffs. He most recently was director of marketing at Polydor/Atlas Records, where he did product management. DuBois worked to create multimedia projects, websites and interactive CD samplers while there. He's held similar posts at PolyGram/Island and was soundtrack coordinator at Atlantic Records. and Chris Innerst, former marketing assistant, has been named manager of tour marketing & artist development. Innerst will manage the daily activity of the department. Robin Gerber will be the department's marketing assist. and coordinator of tour marketing. ■ Diane Doebele has been promoted to sr. director of legal and business affairs for BMG Entertainment and will provide legal and business affairs support to BMG Music Publishing, while continuing to oversee the company's legal intern program. She most recently was a director in the department, and prior to that she was assoc. director.

With a lack of attention being paid to artist development and a somewhat lax attitude towards promotions, the industry steered off course and is now paying the price for it. At MCA we have developed a philosophy that, first of all, stresses the importance of career development for our artists as well as strengthening our ties with the promotion's community. We are also seeking to be represented by artists who cover the complete spectrum of Urban Music."

Hareston, together with his trusted partner/advisor Hank Shockley, has a long history of improving label's fortunes. While at Def Jam the two assembled an artists line up and managerial style that can be largely credited for making that company the industry's premiere urban label. Now at MCA, the two plan to duplicate that

EAST COAST

Singer/songwriter/guitarist Richard Thompson recently performed a solo acoustic set for an audience of industry and fans at the Irving Plaza in New York. The venue was transformed into a subdued cabaret as Thompson performed a mixture of his oldies and new material from his double CD Capitol Records release you?me?us?. Thompson starts a U.S. tour as a co-headliner with Joan Armatrading that kicks off in Philadelphia June 23. Pictured after the performance are (l-r): Capitol's vp of A&R Kim Buie (left) and Thompson.

SPEEDING POPCYCLES: Most bands plow the same fields over and over again, they may be fertile but you are getting the same crop. This is not a problem for Leeds-based English musicians Boyracer. The group goes from noisy pop numbers to more sweet lilting slides that are reminiscent of its old label, the now demised Sarah Records. Now the group finally has a domestic full-length entitled In Full Color just recently released on Zero Hour. With songs entitled "New Punk Song" and "Blazing Fruit" a bit of variation is all but inevitable. Something evident when the band played the Cooler on May Day. With an energy that carried them through, Boyracer careened through its catalog of tricks and carried the night along. More ideas than most bands ever get in one set.

WHAT THE APRIL SHOWERS BROUGHT: There is a blossoming of shows coming to the area. Moog-driven indie rockers Stereolab will be playing three dates, the 20th and the 21st at Irving Plaza and the 25th at Maxwells. The group is supporting its Elektra Entertainment album Emperor Tomato Ketchup which has been received with open arms by critics and fans. Also going in for the multiple appearances is B-52s lifer Fred Schneider. With the release of his solo debut aptly entitled Just Fred produced by sought-after producer Steve Albini, Schneider will be accompanied by members of Illinois' The Didjits, Dis and Tar. You can catch his golden throat at Brownies on the 12th and then leap over the Hudson for his gig at Maxwells. Seeing how things always come in threes, let us not forget the Elektra/Sub Pop's Afghan Wigs dual appearances at Irving Plaza on the 29th and 30th. It's a treat to see women swooning at everyone's favorite alterna-frat boy Greg Dulli. Also not to be outdone is former San Francisco punk Penelope Houston. She has mellowed considerably from her days with the legendary Avengers and you can see this other side at The Mercury Lounge on the 30th and then again on the 31st at Maxwells in support of her LP Cut You out on Reprise.

A TRUE DUTCH TREAT: With bands like Matador's Guided By Voices comes the idea that you don't have to be a twentysomething to break onto the scene, it should be a cinch for the Netherlands' trio Joost Visser to tug at the ears of the listening public. Roving into the territory of catchy guitar pop, but without becoming cloying Joost Visser has all the ingredients needed for a fine concoction. Playing their set at the Knitting Factory on a drizzly Sunday the 5th, you can almost see the sun start to shine as the over-30 group could do no wrong. Whether it was the bounce the drummer gave to her drums, the suave bass player's plucking, or it was Mr. Visser's ability to get a vibrant sound out of his guitar without a single pedal, it didn't matter. From note one they had it all. The group's long player Partners In Hair is out on the Chicago-based Ajax.

Raul Di Blasio: Latin Piano For The World

By Hector Resendez

WHEN DI BLASIO PLAYS, AMERICA LISTENS. If you are one of the few who have never heard of him, don't fret. His music is coming to a pop/easy listening radio station near you (if it hasn't already). The internationally renowned keyboardist, Raul Di Blasio, kicked off his U.S. tour at New York City's Radio Music Hall this past Sunday, May 5th. The concert was sold-out. His next stop was at Miami's Jackie Gleason Performing Arts Center on May 10-12, and he will be at L.A.'s Universal Amphitheatre on June 29.

Blasio recently returned from a 12-day sold-out tour in Mexico City. The platinum-selling artist has travelled to Asia, Europe, Lebanon, Egypt, and other parts of the world to support his latest BMG album, Latino—Piano de America, has sold more than 1 million copies.

"My purpose in making this album was to continue creating the music of Latin America, to create an international sound that eventually has become a magnificently produced project," Di Blasio explains. "Of course, this was due to top-quality work by one of the best producers in the business, Phil Ramone. Emilio Estefan (the album's executive producer) collaborated on the album and helped to bring all the key players together."

"I have produced all my previous (three) albums with the exception of this one," Di Blasio continues. "Once Emilio and I got together and we agreed that he would manage my career, we asked ourselves what should be done for my next album. We wanted to incorporate an international flavor in this production."

Raul Di Blasio.

Di Blasio spoke candidly about his crossing-over into the American pop scene. "I certainly would like to do that," he exclaims. "That was not a primary consideration in making this album, although it was important. I definitely do not want to disregard those fans who have given me their support throughout the years. I will always play for them. For an artist to become loved by his audience, your heart—through your music—must reach out to them. You touch one person and they share your music with another...and another...and so on. That's how an artist really succeeds."

Constantly thinking of his fans, the ever-aware Di Blasio talked about removing his first name from his album covers.

"When I would be introduced as Raul Di Blasio, I realized that many of my fans would simply call me by last name," he remarks. "That's when I took 'Raul' out. Why bother to not simplify things for everyone. Besides, 'Di Blasio' sounds more musical, better flowing, and makes more of a dramatic impact to the imagination. If you notice there's isn't a piano on the cover. Why? Because Raul Di Blasio is not a pianist...he is an artist who plays the piano. I am able to be expressive, be convincing and present my music not only with my piano. I can also deliver a performance on stage and communicate with the audience in my own unique manner. Having a piano, I will be able to sell more records than without one. Without a piano, I would still be able to sell records. That is because an audience develops a relationship with an artist. There is a bond which unites us. I need to share with my audience."

Di Blasio's live stylish performances are certainly testimony to this rather bold statement. Fans adore his mini-monologues and captivating little stories as much as the artist's fiery and dramatic tickling of the ivories.

A little more than five years ago, however, this genteel artist from Argentina was having a hard time getting record execs to hear his demo tape. He was playing piano at major hotels. Amidst feelings of despair, he kept working wherever possible. His unending determination led him to BMG Mexico which first opened the window of opportunity. It was the same label that subsequently dropped him a year later. An even more determined Di Blasio made sure his foot was in the door before it slammed shut. His persistence landed him a second chance.

"I told them," he says, "if you're going to be deaf, don't be blind too."

Di Blasio views everyday as a new exciting opportunity. "The life and success of an artist depends on the smallest of details," he remarks. "A minor change can and will eventually lead to a major development."

One small detail was that Di Blasio's musical training began at the tender age of six years. His father bought him a piano at age 10. Di Blasio feverently studied the Beatles as well as mastering the classics. "I strongly believe that instrumental music has a definite role in pop music. My albums have proved that theory correct over and over again. Where did the name 'Piano of America' come from? Was it conjured up by some journalist or PR firm?" Di Blasio asks as recalls how the label came to be. "It was my idea and vision of who I am and how I want my career to unfold."

No argument there. Di Blasio has already made appearances on CBS' This Morning, CNBC, Fox Network, and local TV programs in New York. "This is part of an effort to introduce Raul to the general American market," states Angel Trejo of BMG U.S. Latin's promotions department in New York. The first promotional single was "Eva" followed by "Penelope," and currently with "Caricias." The same priorities have been heard on Spanish-language radio. "By the end of this year," predicted Trejo, "people everywhere will know who Di Blasio is."

For the artist, that eventuality is just a matter of time.

SINGLES REVIEWS By Daina Darzin

■ VAN HALEN: "Humans Being" (Warner 946254 2)

Van Halen's first contribution to a movie soundtrack, "Humans Being" appears on the Twister disc, and contains the band's trademarks: giant, beautifully melodic guitar riffs, big, anthemic hooks, a sweetly moody instrumental break that takes off for adventurous sonic territory. Already getting play on heavy rock stations including L.A.'s KLOS.

■ SOUNDGARDEN: "Pretty Noose" (A&M 3145405262)

Probably the most definitive Seattle Sound band returns after their multi-platinum Superunknown. The first single off Soundgarden's Down On The Upside disc couches classic Soundgardenisms—guitars that alternate between murky, dark bass lines and hallucinatory fuzzbomb guitar, Chris Cornell's zep-py vocals—with a gorgeously ominous melody. An automatic add at just about any rock format you wanna name.

Now that Everclear's an official gold-plated Big Thing, Portland, Oregon needs a next big thing, and rumor has it this is it. "Win" is a nearly perfect alterna-track, a hazy jangle of edgy vocals and a sparkly, moody groove. The brainchild of vocalist-guitarist-bass-keyboard-what-ever player and songwriter, David Hadland, Headland's self-titled disc has been a top local seller in Portland, and is set to get snatched up by a major label any moment now.

A just-slightly-skewed, lilting tune that combines a gentle pop sensibility with alterna-quirks and flourishes, to good effect: its dreamy, thoughtful vibe recalls Dishwalla's soon-to-be-huge hit, "Counting Blue Cars," but Duncan Sheik is a real original, taking subtle, simple variations on a theme and making them unique. Off the debut disc of 26-year-old singer-songwriter Sheik, formerly a guitarist with Lisa Loeb, whose initial project is a big priority for Atlantic.

PICK OF THE WEEK

Think of a more groove-oriented, melodic take on ex-labelmates' Jesus Lizard's ominous, metalli-strident pissed-offed-ness, and you've got Girls Against Boys, another burgeoning cult favorite from hot indie label Touch & Go. Super-fire is their last disc with 'em before going major label with Geffen and its single is a turbulent, squeaky, darkly glossy thang, and a fine add for modern rock stations.

ALBUM REVIEWS by Daina Darzin

■ BABE THE BLUE OX: People (RCA RADV 66844-2)

Babe the Blue Ox is in love with drums, and use them to great effect, especially on "Can't Stand Up": giant, turbo-powered, sharp-edged, all-encompassing percussion that gives the New York-based band an original edge to its sound. At once dissonant, bluesy, resolutely alternative, People's tracks are liable to veer gleefully off center for some instrumental fancy (as you might expect from a band that named themselves for Paul Bunyon's mythical beastie companion), then return only to drift to the heavens on Rose Thomson's breathy, ethereal voice. Babe the Blue Ox previously released two CDs on Homestead and had a track on last year's Red Hot + Bothered compilation.

■ PANTERA: The Great Southern Trendkill (EastWest 61908-4)

Pantera went platinum with 1994's Far Beyond Driven—so if it ain't broke, don't fix it. Defiant, cantankerous, possessed of ferocious energy, the band has come up with another good Pantera record, which, translated means they proudly stick to their patented scorched-earth-policy metal. Sometimes its minimalist buzzsaw groove powers up to thrash-metal-velocity (the title track); sometimes it slows to an ominous sludge, punctuated by an occasional wild-eyed guitar squeal (the first single, "Drag the Waters.") Either way, Pantera's very dedicated fans are sure to snap The Great Southern Trendkill right up.

■ DEF LEPPARD: Slang (Mercury 314 532486)

Mega-'80s metal veterans Def Leppard return with their first album in years. Eschewing their long-term, meticulous producer Mutt Lange, Def Leppard produced Slang with engineer Pete Woodroffe and the result is an adventurous effort that works at sounding as '90s/alternative as possible. Whether this approach will appeal to old fans, around since the band's slam-bang big-anthem hits off their classics Pyromania and Hysteria as well as attract a new generation, remains to be seen. But the band deserves kudos for creative gumption, especially on cuts like "Turn to Dust," a moody, swirling tune with a Middle Eastern-sounding melody. "Breathe a Sigh" is a straightforward, sweet ballad that's alternately twangy and soulful, while the first single, "Work It Out" percolates through thick waves of sound.

And the next Hootie and the Blowfish is—well, we don't know that, but candidates are cropping up all over the place. Wakeland are from Norman, Oklahoma, and appear on their record sleeve drinking beer at a local-hangout kinda bar, which sets the tone for their very catchy, simple born-to-be-on-the-radio tunes. The first single, "Half of You" is an artfully-crafted combo of extra-memorable hooks, big-muscle instrumentals and easy-going vocals.

PICK OF THE WEEK

■ EXTRA FANCY: Sinnerman (Atlantic 82897-7)

Think back to early, punk-before-his-time, glass-shards-on-stage Iggy Pop—Extra Fancy's Brian Grillo is kind of a skewed '90s reincarnation, purveyor of a flamboyant stage show and emotional, sharp-edged, fierce, amazingly original rock n' roll songs. Recipients of the 1995 Music Connection award as L.A.'s #1 unsigned band, Extra Fancy is unsigned no longer. Atlantic picked up their debut, originally released through Diablo Musica; the band added three new songs and a Dave Jerden remix of "You Look Like A Movie Star Honey." A standout on this consistently strong disc is the stunning, darkly pulsing cover of the late, lamented Nymphs' "Imitating Angels." The track includes vocals by former Nymphs singer Inger Lorre and X's Exene Cervenka. Other L.A. notables including Porno For Pyros' Perry Farrell and L7's Donita Sparks also make an appearance on Sinnerman.

ALBUM REVIEWS By Peter Miro

VARIOUS ARTISTS: The Great White Hope (Hudlin Bros./Epic EK 6736) Producer: Reginald Hudlin

Extensive filler populates this soundtrack, redeemed by select performances. Of note are "Who's The Champion" by Ghostface Killer f/Rza and "Running Song" by Ambersunshower, who's definitely an artist to be watched. Bassist/producer Marcus Miller makes a rare vocal show on "And I Love You." Passion f/E-40, Insane Clown Posse and Bone-Thugs-N-Harmony are wasted on this collection.

RAMSEY LEWIS: Between The Keys (GRP) Producers: Ramsey Lewis, Joe Sample, Frayne Lewis, Bobby Lewis

As the lines blur between R&B instrumentals and contemporary jazz, one of its earliest crossover stars, Ramsey Lewis, fulfills a "Dream Team" A&R vision by working with Joe Sample and Grover Washington, Jr. to state just how much funk fits into the evolving equation. For those who forgot, "Sun Goddess 2000" is an updated version of the Lewis classic, accentuated by Washington's soprano sax solo. "Cold And Windy," "I'll Always Be About You," "Secret Place," "Between The Keys," "Les Fleur" and "Hearts Of Fire" all rate Quiet Storm or A/C consideration. Lewis' tranquil keyboard passages float over a muted, percussive thrum. Arrives in stores May 21.

CHINO XL: Here To Save You All (American/9 43038-2) Producers: Dan Charnas, B.Wiz for Rocket Science, Bird for Birdshit Productions

Chino XL's face-cracking invective spares few targets as he formulates similes about a vast array of pop culture personalities. His humor may invite libelous outrage, his scathing delivery more notoriety. Cool, creeping bass, keyboards, horns, strings and dubbed voices anchor a deliberately spare East Coast production. "It's All Bad," "RIIOT! (f/Ras Kass)," "What Am I," "Thousands," "Kreep," "Many Different Ways," and "No Complex" rank as the best of the LP's diatribes. Includes a shout out to O.J. Simpson.

PICK OF THE WEEK

KENNY LATTIMORE: Never Too Busy (Sony/Columbia 67125) Producers: Kipper Jones, Keith Crouch, Kenneth Crouch, Barry Eastmond, Herb Middleton, Oji Pierce

Singer/songwriter Kenny Lattimore displays mesmerizing gifts on his debut LP. His Orpheus-like capabilities can transfix wild beasts in the forest or lovers in strife with equal measure. It's a voice of peace, expertly modulated on a collection of radio-ready material. Disarming title track "Never Too Busy" sparkles with throaty charm, a chartbound projectile fit for urban and pop formats. Midtempo cut "Just What It Takes" expands on the emotional message in a funky way. "Forever," "For You," "Where Did Love Go," "Forgiveness," "All I Want" and "Climb The Mountain" add highly charged rounds for a seductive serenade. Thankful prayer "I Won't Forget (Whose I Am)" completes the torrent of feelings from a pure, engaging talent.

NEVER TOO BUSY: Wouldn't be too disappointed with the music journalist no-shows at the lunchtime listening party for Columbia artist Kenny Lattimore May 6 at Loews Santa Monica Beach Hotel. It only meant they missed a rare peak experience which they'll be hearing more about as the buzz builds over Lattimore's debut release Never Too Busy in coming weeks. For a 25-year old neophyte, Lattimore commanded the rapt attention of the writers who weren't too busy to come to the scenic seaside locale to scout this formidable crooner up close. He's in a league that few song stylists/phrascologists approach in their careers. Thoughtful, evocative Morning Crew recording artist Gary Taylor, the late Donny Hathaway, '70's balladeer Leroy Hutson, Michael Jackson, George Michael and Al Jarreau all come to mind when one attempts to localize Lattimore's voice in the spectrum of captivating male vocalists. It's a voice that will win many converts on radio and live performances as his focused delivery becomes apparent. Sony/Columbia is putting together a veritable "Murderers Row" of young R&B/urban talent with Lattimore, Maxwell and Puff Johnson—versatile singers whose heartfelt musical expression is characterized by soulful accompaniment, lush production values and honest, emotive lyrics. With pianist Sam Kendrick, Lattimore impressed with his physical presence and charm, leaving guests neatly tied by his spider-silk voice.

COMPTON GAINS ARTS ACADEMY: Progressive Symphony founder Yvette Deveraux the first African American woman to conduct the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, opens the Progressive Arts Academy in Compton next month. She established the school to "give something back to the community, and help students realize their artistic potential." Deveraux, noted violinist, composer, arranger and music educator, has worked with a broad array of pop/R&B artists including Brandy, Barbra Streisand, Aretha Franklin, George Duke, Whitney Houston, Kathleen Battle, Vanessa Williams, Coolio, Babyface, Luther Vandross, Roberta Flack, Kenny G, Stanley Clarke and others. The non-profit Academy held its Grand Opening May 11. Contact (310) 763-7777 for donations (cash or equipment) and enrollment info.

THE RHYME

IT'S ALL IN THE "GAMEPLAN": Penalty artist, hip-hop legend Lord Finesse has released the video "Gameplan" from his hit LP The Awakening. The "Gameplan" single will be in stores May 21 and will be a double-A side release with the track "Actual Facts" featuring Large Professor, Grand Puba and Sadat X. A video is in the can for "Actual Facts" which includes camcos by KRS-One, Fat Joe, Diamond, AG and others. After 60 days, sales of the LP have reached 100,000 units. Finesse has clear-cut ideas on the difference between "rap" the art form, and "hip hop," which he sees as a distinct culture he's been a part of since childhood. He is one of the few artists who can rap, DJ and produce, reflected in his work for Notorious B.I.G., Big L, and R&B artists SWV and Caron Wheeler.

FINAL HOUR IMMINENT: Critique/BMG artist Poppa Doo has released Da Final Hour with 11 cuts by Pop aka Tony C. He's assisted by Dewayne "Big Du" Martin, MC Breed and Swift C on a topical, hard-driving production.

ADDRHYME: Sales of 2Pac's new album All Eyes On Me have topped four million units. RZA of Wu Tang Clan and Ghostface Killer have formed a new label—Razor Sharp—to be distributed by Epic. Virgin/Noo Trybe's Original Gangstas soundtrack will burn some eardrums with the strong performances of Junior M.A.F.I.A. ("White Chalk, Pt. II") and N.O. Joe feat. 3rd Degree ("How Many"), to name a few. The Orion film premiered at the Pacific Cinerama Dome in Hollywood, May 7. Its plot pits "old school" black street heroes Richard Roundtree, Ron O'Neal, Fred Williamson, Jim Brown and Pam Grier against contemporary urban adversaries who point their straps sideways when they bum rush their prey. The soundtrack, released April 30, also features The Geto Boys, Ideal, Facemob, Luniz, Mobb Deep f/RSO, The Click, 3XKrazy f/Suga T. MC Ren, 3rd Degree, Ice T, Spice 1 and Smooth.

Cash Box will be looking at the activities of Busta Rhymes, Digital Underground, Mr. X and others making noise (or about to) in upcoming issues.

Rap Single Reviews

By Peter Miro

■ DARK SUN RIDERS: "Time To Build" (Island PRCD 7217-2)

Brother J. "Vibal Magus" of the Dark Sun Riders kicks surgically precise, didactic rhymes coiled around a funky, posture-curling bass signature. "Time To Build" is the syncopated, in-the-pocket chant of a tribal sage on a free verse stage. Danceable, noddable wisdom continues on the Ultra Marsalis remix and urban propaganda track "Vibes Of The Pro Black." First-rate engineering by Beat Assassins and the Ooga Priest of Earth Core Productions gives this a live recital vibe. Additional bass parts by Ali Shaheed Muhammad. From the LP Seeds Of Evolution.

An eerie, relaxing "Summer Madness" inspired narrative is dramatized on this single by MC Brainz, MC Breed and Kool Ace. Bonus cut "Open Wide" also breaks into easy listening territory using a careful instrumental backdrop that stands alone as an easy listening track. More musical than most rap offerings, this formula is suave enough to embrace a variety of listeners.

■ MAD LION: "Double Trouble" (Weeded/Nervous Records WE 20189-2)

Walk through the Lion's gravelly-voiced dancehall growls laid onto the percussion intro to "Real Love" by Mary J. Blige with some Teddy Pendergrass grafted on for effect. KRS-One adds power to the Third World remix track.

Blues News & Notes

By Denise Tapp & John Rhys

WHAT'S BLACK AND WHITE AND BLUE ALL OVER? Far too many people think of the blues as a simplistic, stagnant musical style, limited to a handful of twelve bar refrains interpreted with varying degrees of success by young white males. Move over Gross Misconception and make way for a vibrant, evolving art form with lots of appeal.

This point was driven home, literally, to the lucky group of players and fans who attended the 17th Annual Handy Awards in Memphis Thursday, May 2nd, an event which was followed by three days and nights of solid entertainment at the Memphis In May Beale Street Music Festival. The entertainers were at their best when encouraged and assisted by one another in a way that recalled the days when American music was just coming of age, struggling to free itself from the "one-two-three oompah" beat.

At the awards show, veterans took the spotlight and stunned us with their energy and enthusiasm. Jimmy Rogers (age 72) accepted a Handy for Male Artist of the Year in Traditional Blues and then moved to the stage to demonstrate graphically his skills which had merited recognition. Robert Lockwood Jr. (81), whose genius has been too often overlooked by blues buffs in search of untold stories about his mother's boyfriend, delivered a flawless rendition of "Love In Vain", one which would, no doubt, has sent it's composer in search of the next freight train out of town. And 88-year-old Yank Rachell, assisted by "youngsters" John Sebastian and Fritz Richmond, won a new generation of fans with his jug band classics from the late 1920's. "If the river were whiskey and I was a divin' duck...I'd dive to the bottom and never come up."

The most innovative performance of the evening was delivered by Clarence "Gatemouth" Brown (72). His three song set began with a Texas style boogie blues, moved to a scorching fiddle number and ended with an astounding version of "Take The A Train". As Gatemouth manipulated the slide to imitate an approaching train whistle and then burst into a jump jazz duet with his sax player, the audience fell totally silent, enthralled by his artistry.

The younger performers showed similar confidence and creativity. Joe Louis Walker delivered a rare acoustic slide guitar solo reminiscent of Bukka White in intensity, leaving the audience gasping, "He was born with it!" Hometown boy Charlie Musselwhite, whose sincere passion for the blues carried him through tuning problems, kept listeners entertained with anecdotes from the old Beale Street. And, after sweeping five awards, Luther Allison took the stage for a truly grand finale which included fellow honoree KoKo Taylor, emcee Ruth Brown, Ronnie Earl and the Memphis Horns.

At the conclusion of the awards ceremony, 'round midnight, performers and audience moved the party to Beale Street for further jamming. At B.B.King's, the Saffire women stopped dancing just long enough to deliver a raucous set accompanied by Bob Margolin. The ever gracious Luther Allison accepted congratulations and shook it to the music of his comrades in arms before leading the jam a B.B.'s until 4:15 a.m. And this was just the first of four days of heavy action.

From a technical standpoint, this big night for the Blues Foundation sailed on wings of angels. Sound and staging problems which have plagued years past were gone, and things appeared to move smoothly and professionally. Foundation executive director David Less had good news to share with the audience, including the fact that the ceremony was being audiotaped for broadcast later this year and that we could anticipate a Memphis blues radio show to be hosted by Andrew Love and Wayne Jackson (The Memphis Horns) for national syndication.

The Beale Street Music Festival got underway on Friday with a mile or two of state-of-the-art sound stages. Headliner Dave Matthews helped draw a record crowd of 40,000, mostly very young people, to Tom Lee Park where quite a few were turned on to other forms of music. R.L.Burnside delivered an energetic lesson in juke joint blues, and shortly afterward, Otis Rush spread the West Side Chicago Word about a half mile away. The talent ran the gamut from blue-eyed soul to choreographed R&B to slick urban blues. Jimmy Rogers wowed 'em at B.B.'s on Friday night. Across the street at Blues City Café, a sizeable mob waited for people to leave and make room for them to hear The Cate Brothers. At The Black Diamond, guitar virtuoso Sean

Costello astounded an interesting mix of people including Ron Levy, James At The Dark End Of The Street Carr and an enthusiastic gentleman from Chicago who kept yelling, "Call the po-lice! This kid is TOO BAD!"

American Music's Main Street was littered with talent and was elbow to elbow with fans. A good time was had by all and people from every nook and cranny of the blues loving world, are limping their way back home after an unforgettable weekend of the best the world has to offer.

At the first Beale Street Music Festival, held in May of 1977 on a patch of grass in Handy Park amidst the wreckage of urban renewal, headliner B.B.King announced to one and all that Beale Street would make a comeback because it was a force too strong to be put down. This weekend's events have fulfilled that prediction, and once again the entertainers proved that B.B. was right in calling Memphis "the mother of the blues." It was a homecoming in the truest sense of the word.

Something very special started in Memphis decades ago, dug out of the depths of the human experience and translated into sound which found ears the world over. That "something" has lost none of its power to enchant, to energize, and to comfort. If anything the force has grown, evolved and gained momentum. It could only have happened in Memphis.

NAIRD CONFAB: Mike Dreese, co-founder/CEO of the 15-store Northeast retail chain Newbury Comics will be the keynote speaker at the upcoming National Assn. of Independent Recording Distributors (NAIRD) convention to be held May 22-26 at Baltimore, MD's Omni Inn Harbor Hotel. Dreese promises to fire things up in his address noting: "This will definitely be a no-holds-barred discussion of what has gone radically wrong with the shift in the distribution channel, how much blood is presently in the streets and how it will continue to impact retailers and indie labels. I also want to discuss ideas on how to deal with the turbulent future."

Having started Newbury Comics 17 years ago with roommate John Brusger, the chain grew on the flow of alternative product that burgeoned throughout the '80s and into the '90s and has been named twice to Inc. Magazine's "Inc. 500" as one of the fastest growing private companies in America.

THE THIRD STAGE OF LOLLAPALOOZA: Faced with a greater clamor for more major label acts to slide onto the bill, Lollapalooza '96 is bowing a third stage exclusively for indie acts that will be called, appropriately, "The Indie Stage." While the Second Stage was normally reserved for indie acts, major labels have gained squatters rights with acts such as Girls Against Boys, Ben Folds Five, Cornershop, Satehel, You Am I and Beth Hart slated for the first part of the tour. The second half of the trek will find Soul Coughing, Sponge, The Melvins, Ruby, Johnny Polonsky and Low & Sweet Orchestra manning the Second Stage.

The trendy Indie Stage will feature Chune, Moonshake, Lutefisk and Capsize 7 on the first leg of the tour, and Cows, Long Fin Killie, Thirty Ought-Six and Varnaline holding forth the second half of the the Lollapalooza tour. It promises to be a true example of musical diversity.

Grammy-nominated singer/songwriter Nnenna Freelon has signed to Concord Jazz and in July will debut her Shaking Free album. The Billie Holiday Award winner has spent the last two years touring extensively in the U.S. and Europe and the musicians with whom she's toured will be featured on the 12-cut album along with some special guests. Pictured flanking Freelon after a recent performance at San Francisco's Herbst Theater are Concord president Glenn Barros (left) and manager Cheryl Carter.

■ Steve Wilson has been named vp of A&R & product development at K-Tel Records, where he will oversee the A&R and product management functions for the parent company and its subsidiaries Arrival, Cold-Front, Era, Nouveau and Dominion. Wilson began his career in 1977 at Minneapolis-based distributors Pickwick. In 1986 he was recruited into product development by K-Tel.

■ The Handleman Company, a major supplier and merchandiser of music, video, books and PC software to retail chains and other outlets, has chosen Thomas F. Quinn to be vp of software development. Prior to joining Handleman, Quinn served as director of general merchandise and marketing manager for software at Egghead Software. He also has held various marketing, merchandising and management posts with Woodward and Lothrop/John

Wanamaker of Washington, D.C. ■ David Dorn has been promoted to sr. director of media relations at Rhino Entertainment. Dorn will oversee all aspects of media relations for the company, including his continued work with the audio division and supervision of all media efforts for Kid Rhino, Rhino Home Video, Rhino Books and Rhino Film divisions, as well as corporate communications. A three-year veteran of the company, Dorn also worked at Oh Boy Records. ■ Ken Johnson has been appointed manager of A&R administration for the Sparrow Communications Group and will now oversee administration of product schedule and work as liaison between A&R and creative services. He also will be involved in artist-producer/company relations and producer contracts. Formerly manager of business affairs for Word, Inc., Johnson has also served in various roles in the company's A&R department during his six years there.

■ peermusic recently appointed Else Lau Asia Pacific regional manager. The new job calls for Lau to oversee the company's operations in Singapore and Taiwan, and to also assume strategic responsibility for the publishing company's interests in China and other Asia Pacific markets. Lau previously was director in Taiwan and Hong Kong for Friendly Dogs Music Publishing and also served as publishing manager for BMG Pacific Music Publishing Ltd., as director of publishing at Rock International Music Publishing Co. Ltd. and as publishing manager/international licensing manager for HNH International Ltd.

■ Paula Sartorius has been named sr. director of artist management at the Metropolitan Entertainment Group. Sartorius brings Lucious Jackson and Los Lobos to MEG, and in her new post will manage these acts and others, as well as oversee the booking, advertising, marketing and advertising campaigns. Prior to MEG, Sartorius spent eight years with Side One Management.

ALL THAT JAZZ: These rare packages from Black Lion are like found money. The latest from the Little Silver, NJ-based label that could, is Dexter Gordon—Live at the Montmartre, a three disc box set that features sessions recorded at Montmartre Jazzhaus in Copenhagen July 20 and 21, 1967. Like many American jazz expatriates, the late Gordon refined his craft while touring the concert halls and bistros of Europe, finding a unique voice that distinguished him from many of the giants of the day. On this collection he offers a varied song list featuring lesser-known compositions such as Ben Tucker's "Devilette," and some standards from his contemporaries—Sonny Rollins, "Doxy" and "Sonnymoon For Two," and that's just on the first disc.

He pays homage to tenor giant Coleman Hawkins on disc two's "Body And Soul," where Hawkins' influence is evident, although Gordon leaves his imprint on the classic. Billy Strayhorn's "'A' Train" is a highlight of the third disc along with "For All We Know." Like on previous Black Lion box

PICK OF THE WEEK

■ THE BAND: High On The Hog (Pyramid-R2-72404) Producers: Aaron L. Hurwitz and The Band

They say everything can be replaced. In terms of groups of musicians this certainly is not the case. Once again, redefining themselves, is The Band. The group repeat delivers its brand of sincere imperfection which qualifies them as human beings not machines. High On The Hog is a wonderful collection of well-chosen material honestly performed and exquisitely recorded by the masters of the laid-back pocket. Stellar songwriters include Denzil Foster and Thomas McElroy, John Cale, Bruce Channel and, of course, Bob Dylan. This CD should do well on name value alone, but with a little airplay sales should soar. Check out "Back To Memphis" (great horn arrangement) and the lyric on "Free Your Mind." When all is said and done, The Band still epitomizes the word "UNIQUE." (JR)

■ VARIOUS ARTISTS: Silver Lake What A Drag! (Neurotic Records NE-6903-2)

A stellar collection of cuts from L.A.'s more edgy up-and-coming bands, including recent Atlantic signing Extra Fancy, extra-jangly punkers Velouria ("Where Ford Falcons Come To Die") and the wry, post-psychedelic The Negro Problem ("Witch"). Standouts on this exuberant, hyper, unmistakably genuine collection include Fluorescein's surging, pulsing punk-rocker, "Spin Cycle"; Extra Fancy's dark, swirling, fierce "Prey For Old Men"; and the aptly-named Touch Candy's power-pop-and-proud "Marcia." But the pick of the batch is surely Popdefect, with their Surfaris-gone-wrong "Veena's Revenge" and "Rock In My Hand." (DD)

What an incredible grouping, the blues of Taj Mahal the artist with a remarkably astute pianist and guitarist from the land of the Taj Mahal. The truly transcendental acoustic sound achieved by the trio on this collection of covers and Mahal originals is belied by the simplicity of the sound. Just point the mike and let them play. The fusion of cultural is never more evident than on the cover of the legendary Robert Johnson's "Come On In My Kitchen," where the rich, earthy voice of Mahal croons over a Mississippi Delta bottom-rich blues groove that flows alongside gritty Ganges textures. The opening track, Mahal's "Coming of the Mandinka," is like the sound of gentle, shimmering rain hitting a still pond as Mahal's guitar picking, the playing of sitarist Narasimhan Rivikiran and that of lap guitarist Vishwa Mohan Bhatt share gentle musings that blur idiomatic notions with a powerful, spiritual investment. Other highlights include the cover of the classic "Stand By Me" and an impromptu discussion on the tastes for curry cooking and quartertone picking to close the album. (MRM)

There are many writers today who certainly have something to say. There's a whole lot to talk about. How eloquently they put it is a matter for discussion. Perhaps eloquence is too grandiose a word. The listener must be the judge. For over 30 years Gerry Goffin has shared with the world a host of feelings numbed by cruelty, despair, and political intrigue. People have lived and died while his music played. Back Room Blood addresses Mr. Goffin's sensitivity as a writer and a plain human being. This CD expresses his anger and mistrust at a world racing headlong into disaster and is not for the fainthearted. This collaboration includes a few more radicals such as Bob Dylan and Barry Goldberg on the composition end. Each song is a masterpiece encompassing and embracing the writers' observations of the world today. A natural for college radio and, depending on their courage, A/C. (JR)

■ SUZANNE CIANI: Pianissimo II (Seventh Wave SW7004-2). Producer: S. Ciani.

Ciani could have retired on the money she made from scoring commercials and other visual projects. She's never been a jingles artist, an artist prone to pop songs. And while her synthesizer-driven albums of the '80s and early '90s could form the core of any A/C or New Age playlists, her work has always embodied a depth that begged for her tactile skills on the acoustic keyboard. Her Pianissimo gave fans a taste of her voice in a truly solo setting. The follow-up to her Grammy-nominated Dream Suite album released last year, on this album Ciani demonstrates why her melodies endure. Her ability to blend mantric-like rhythm lines and articulate lyricism is most evident on "The Velocity of Love" and "Go Gently." This enhanced-CD package also serves up original artwork by Ciani for multimedia mavens. (MRM)

■ JOE MCBRIDE: Keys To Your Heart (Heads Up HUCD 3035). Producers: Dave Love & Martin Walters.

Smooth jazz piano that mixes lyrical melodicism with rhythms that are immediately contemporary but pay homage to traditionalism. But McBride's '90s R&B sensibilities are evident, especially on "Let's Spend Some Together," and on the funky cover of the classic Stylistics anthem "People Make The World Go Round," where the pianist shows George Duke-esque flourishes. McBride trades vocal chops with the warm falsetto of Earth, Wind & Fire vocalist Phillip Bailey on the ballad "It's Got To Be Love," and guitarist Larry Carlton joins him on uptempo "Chit-Chat." Grover Washington, Jr. gets busy on the midtempo, hipswaying "After Sunset." Could be a delight for NAC, smooth jazz and some jazz programmers. The enhanced-CD features pictures and profiles of the artists. (MRM) releases, multiple takes of the same song are offered to demonstrate how the character of a song changes with each rendering. Gordon is joined by pianist Kenny Drew, drummer Albert "Tootie" Heath and Danish bassist Neils-Henning Ørsted Pederson...

While plans for a reunion of seminal jazz and fusion band Weather Report remain hazy, Escapade Music has obtained the worldwide rights to release of the next two recordings of prime mover Joe Zawinul. My People is the first release from the accomplished and eclectic keyboardist/composer/producer, who taps the talents of some 35 guests. Due out in August, the album will be supported by a major tour, with stops in Australia and South America and a U.S. tour already set. Escapade is distributed worldwide through both EFA and Hired Gun Marketing's international distribution...

ADD INDIE: Usually these pages tout the arrival of new artists, labels and deals. Rarely do we report the departure of a label (though we know it does happen, usually quietly, without fanfare). But Oakland, CA-based Redwood Cultural Works/Redwood Records has announced plans to permanently shut down. The label and multicultural arts organization, which ironically made the announcement of its shuttering on April 15, was opened in 1972 by artists Holly Near, whose catalogue comprises the bulk of the more than 100 releases put out over the years. The company got major attention when Afro-Cuban percussionists Patato Valdes, Jose Luis Quintana and Orestes Vilato had their Ritmo Y Candela: Rhythm At The Crossroads album nominated for a Grammy in 1992. But the debt inherited by the outgoing management in 1992 ultimately was too deep to diminish...

Johany Mathis' 40th anniversary will be celebrated with his recording debut for QVC, Inc., All About Love. The company also plans release of The Music of Johnny Mathis—A Personal Collection... Mother Superior is a Los Angeles-based rock 'n' blues trio that has logged more hours in area clubs than most bands that have already signed deals. That's not to say they aren't good enough to get signed, or that they haven't put out product. The tireless triad, who lead guitarist-vocalist Jim Wilson says, "likes to rehearse, that's why our music sounds so full, live and on record," has been releasing product through its Top Beat label and has been smoking local critics with its earnest, honest, spirited play. It's like the James Brown song says, "open up the door and I'll get it myself!"

Damian Music has been crowing about its recent successes and pending launch into a new product line. The Navarre Corp.-distributed label has earned the distribs #1 spot in sales with its The Dance Box, Vol. 1, secured a sub-publishing and licensing deal with BMG Music in the U.S., Warner Chappell in Japan, Intercord/EMI in Europe and Scandinavian SongsMusic Group in Sweden, and most recently, and representing the most important development, inked a deal with Strategic Alliance Partners for its enhanced-CD product. The first title under the Alliance pact is Da Black Side Brown, Mad Wax Vol. 1, a collection of songs from various Los Angeles rap and Latino artists featuring 12 audio tracks, and three CD-ROM games. The next title is a release by Larry Tagg, With A Skeleton Crew, which has 10 audio tracks augmented by the CD-ROM game "3-D Table Sports" from Time Warner Interactive.

Scotti Bros.' Street Life Records is visiting the past with "My Eyes Adored You," a remake of the classic 1974 Frankie Valli tune by N.A.I.S.. The song's writer, veteran Kenny Nolan, produced the single, which married doo-wop to hip-hop. The track is the latest single from the Louisiana quartet's 1995 debut album, Str-8 From Da Boot. Pictured are (l-r): Claude "C-Dub" Woods and K.T. Robinson of N.A.I.S.; Nolan; and Bruce "Bee" Elebee and F. "Gucci" Hawkins of the group.

News From The United Kingdom, Ireland & Europe

By Hal Levy

TOP UK SINGLES: George Michael is back on top again this year with his new single, "Fastlove" pushing Mark Morrison's "Return Of The Mack" down to two. Gina G's "Ooh Ahh...Just A Little Bit" holds onto three and Manic Street Preachers' "A Design For Life" moves down to four. Suggs & Louchie Lou's "Cecilia" moves up to five and Michael Jackson's "They Don't Care" lands on six. New on the chart is Pet Shop Boys' "Before" at seven followed by another newcomer Man Utd Fa Cup Squad's "Move Move Move" (see below for full name of 'group'). Lisa Marie Experience's "Keep On Jumpin'" jumped down to nine and newcomer Sleeper's "Sale Of The Century" rounds out the chart at ten. (Man Utd Fa Cup is Manchester United Fa Cup soccer team. Is this the start of a trend?)

Top UK Album is Alanis Morissette's Jagged Little Pill. Top Video rental is Braveheart and Top Video sale remains Pocahontas with Top Music Video Live Cast Recording—Les Miserables. Top Mega Drive rental is Mortal Kombat 3, Top Super Nintendo rental is Donkey Kong Country 2. At the boxoffice, 12 Monkeys is doing the main business.

Robert Miles' "Children" is the Top European single leading in France, Germany, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, Belgium and Macedonia. Take That's "How Deep Is Your Love" holds top billing in Lithuania and Latvia. Leading the European album list is Take That's Greatest Hits, which holds Spain, Austria, Germany and Holland. Alanis Morissette's Jagged Little Pill shines in Denmark and Ireland while Celine Dion's "Falling Into You" tops in Switzerland and France. In the other European markets, top albums are by mainly native language groups.

BEAR-ISH as Rank Organization, selling at £5.35 is down 0.75% and PolyGram's NLF 102 (£39.49) is down 2.1%. BULLISH with Thorn EMI at £18.43, up 0.03%.

GOING UP AND UP, according to the International Federation of the Phonographic Industry, is China which, in 1995, produced about 40 million CDs of which approximately 83% are counterfeit, an increase of 1.5% over the year before. China's internal market is estimated at around 5 million units and the remainder is exported, representing some 40% of the world's pirate sales. IFPI claims that European losses due to the Chinese exports cost record companies $170 million last year alone. What is now worrying IFPI is with recent construction in China, the country is now able to produce some 150 million CDs a year. IFPI is asking for international laws against the production of CDs that don't carry an international identification code. They also want China to allow joint ventures with foreign companies and also allow foreign companies to set up wholly-owned subsidiaries in the country.

Meanwhile, pressure is being put on the Chinese government by visiting U.S. and European trade officials to make China abide by its promise last year to curb the counterfeiting of intellectual property rights. Behind the soft words of Mr. Lee Sands, assistant U.S. trade representative, is the harder line being taken in Washington over renewal of China's Most Favored Nation status, which grants exemption from many U.S. import duty taxes. U.S. officials say they have identified the factories engaged in the illegal trade and want them closed. Sir Leon Brittan, the European Trade Commissioner, is expected to call for stronger measures by the Chinese government to curb these abuses.

OLD MCDONALD GETTING A NEW FRIEND in the Golden Ring Entertainment company. GRE, together with Eastman Kodak are building a cinema complex in Moscow's Pushkin Square, opposite the city's famous McDonalds. Russia, in the 1980s, had more than 120,000 cinema houses. Today there are only 1,500, all one-screen jobs. The GRE complex will contain a multi-screen cinema together with a Kodak store, U.S. chain restaurants and a Hollywood Souvenir shop.

PAY PAY PAY: At present, Germany has one Pay-TV channel, Premiere. But by the end of the year there could be as many as 50 in Europe's richest broadcasting market. The two biggies in the field are Bertelsmann and The Kirch Group, both of whom hold positions in Premiere. Bertelsmann is joining Rupert Murdoch's BSKyB and France's Canal Plus to form a Pay-TV company. Kirch, on its own, has signed a long-term distribution agreement with Viacom and Paramount for its Pay-TV company. German TV manufacturers wanted to set a standard decoder which Bertelsmann agreed to. However, Kirch is developing their own decoder, which they claim will be on the market months before the rival group's machine.

SUPER GIRLS VS. SUPER BOYS: Supermodels Naomi Campbell, Claudia Schiffer, Elle MacPherson and Christy Turlington are set to fight Sylvester Stallone, Bruce Willis and Arnold Schwarzenegger when their Fashion Cafe opens in London across the street from Planet Hollywood.

ZAPPA STILL ZAPPING: In Lithuania, Frank Zappa was a cult icon during the communist years because of his anti-establishment positions. Last year, the Vilnius city council gave permission for a bust of Zappa to be placed outside the Vilnius Art Academy. However, Academy authorities resisted the idea and finally the location had to be changed. But it was finally unveiled with the government's military band and lots of fireworks. Now Zappa is part of the establishment.

GO WHERE THE MONEY'S GOING: Radio is the fastest growing advertising medium in the UK, with 1995 figures of £270 million compared to 1994's £220 million, with 1996 expected to be a banner year. The recently approved broadcasting bill, which allows newspapers to own radio licenses outright is expected to lead to an increased takeover fever. Currently GWR, a regional radio company, has offered £24.3 million for East Anglian Radio and at the same time, GWR is floating a rights issue expected to raise £35 million. The company has also confirmed they are negotiating to buy 75% of Radio New Zealand.

TAKE ME OUT TO THE MOVIE HOUSE seems to be the song of people in the UK as first quarter boxoffice figures for 1996 show a jump of 31.4% over last year. The Cinema Advertising Association sees 1996 sales of 123 million tickets compared to 1995's 115 million.

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME: The official song for soccer's European Championships is Mick Hucknall of Simply Red's "We're In This Together." And Gloria Estefan's "Reach" will be the anthem of Atlanta's Summer Olympics.

AND WHERE ARE YOU FROM? will be the question asked at the upcoming Eurovision Song Contest taking place this month in Oslo, Norway. Britain's entry will be sung by Australia's Gina G while Karen Matheson from Scotland will be vocalizing for France.

VIRGIN LEARNING ITS A-B-Cs: Virgin has accepted a £68 million management buyout of 90 UK cinema houses in Virgin's MGM Cinemas division. Virgin will hold onto the cineplexes and plans to build more. The new chain will operate under the name of ABC Cinemas, which was its original name before being bought out 10 years ago by The Cannon Group, which in turn sold it to MGM Cinemas. The ABC people, all former MGM and/or ABC employees, say they will also be building new cineplexes. The name, MGM Cinemas is expected to disappear.

NO CAN SEE: Another Quentin Tarantino-written film, From Dusk To Dawn, has been banned in Ireland according to the country's censor, Seamus Smith, because of its "extraordinary violence." Buena Vista International, set to distribute the film, said they have not as yet decided to appeal the decision to the Censorship of Films Appeals Board. The only other alternative is to submit a cut version to the censor's office. Tarantino's Natural Born Killers was also banned in the country. The last film banned in Ireland was Paul Verhoeven's Showgirls.

PLACE YOUR BETS, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, soon at the proposed $650 million Sonas Centre casino complex. While Dublin's planning board has given their approval, some Irish government officials have expressed their opposition to the entire plan, especially the gambling aspect. The planning officials, to meet previous complaints, cut back the number of slot machines, to which government sources say is still too much. However, Sonas spokespersons say that the complex, which will include a stadium, hotel, indoor arena and conference center, cannot proceed unless the casino with its slot machines is included in the plans as it was essential to the financial viability of the entire complex.

BETWEEN A HARD ROCK AND INTERNET is Isaac Tigrett, one of the co-founders of The Hard Rock Cafe who moved on to found the House Of Blues chain. He's just formed Traffic Interactive, the UK's first online media marketing company. Traffic's first job was promoting Vladivar Vodka, which they did by staging a live online concert headed by Supergrass at an estimated cost of £250,000.

MADAME LIBRARIAN: With more and more TV stations coming on the air, the need for programming is increasing and what better way of getting your hands on product than buying out companies that have a big library of film and TV programs. Pearson, in January, paid $13 million for SelecTV, the production company whose library contained almost 250 hours of TV programming. In France, UGC DA bought Lumiere for $140 million, thus getting hold of its catalogue of 2,000 films and another 2,000 hours of TV programs. Last year PolyGram bought ITC Entertainment and Carlton Communications picked up Romulus.

WB & U's Twister's HUGE!

By John Goff

All three performers in this photo are Terrific—Bill Paxton (l), Helen Hunt (r) and towering over everything (c), The Tornado!

THE GUIDE-ON IS RAISED, the standard for the summer of '96 is set and it's literally whirling around, daring its followers to "Beat This, Pal!" Twister is here! And it's ready to do some major damage at the boxoffice.

Amblin Entertainment produced, Warner Bros. will release domestically, Universal internationally and all concerned will suck up the loot because Twister is classy, exciting and visually stunning, all without pandering.

There's destructive movement enough on screen to satisfy the worst kind of action junkie but it stems out of the force of nature, giving ant-like humans moving in its path and wake the status of humanity heroes. There are car crashes, truck crashes and explosions but it doesn't stem from the stupidity of mankind's cruelty to mankind—not a gun in sight here, folks. This is Nature at work, reality.

Course, there's a lot of effects at work here too: state of the art special visual effects and animation by Industrial Light & Magic and computer graphics provided by Silicon Graphics, Inc. All this is so finely integrated into actual footage of tornadoes sweeping across the plains of Oklahoma and Iowa you're going to have to study this several times to find any kind of a seam. But don't go to Twister looking for seams, go to allow yourself be swept up in the scope of it as natural action and involvement in a select group of scientists' lives during a 48-hour period of chasing tornadoes across Oklahoma. Guaranteed you'll leave the theatre sated.

The script by husband-wife team of Michael Crichton and Anne-Marie Martin is super in weaving the tornado chasers' lives in with the forces of Nature, paralleling an action-based tumultuous romance involvement with the equally tumultuous and erratic behaviour of the twister. They never overload one or the other, terrifically balancing romance, friendship, concern, rivalry and action throughout. You expect state of the art techno writing from Crichton, and Martin sets a standard for herself here as a debuting writer. Martin is no stranger to show business, and her influence can well be seen here in the strength of female roles. They make a good team.

Jan De Bont has an unerring feel for just how long to leave an audience sitting before making it jump again, and it isn't long. Your backside won't go numb during Twister, neither will your brain. The director moves to the top of the action-adventure-with-thought hill here.

There are tornado chasers out there, people who do this for a living, or rather a "calling." Perhaps they're not as colorful as some of these on-screen characters but hey, we have to cut some entertainment slack, don't we?

Jan De Bont has an unerring feel for just how long to leave an audience sitting before making it jump again, and it isn't long. Your backside won't go numb during Twister, neither will your brain. The director moves to the top of the action-adventure-with-thought hill here.

There are tornado chasers out there, people who do this for a living, or rather a "calling." Perhaps they're not as colorful as some of these on-screen characters but hey, we have to cut some entertainment slack, don't we?

The on-screen performers—Bill Paxton, Helen Hunt, Jami Gertz, Cary Elwes, Lois Smith, Philip Hoffman, Alan Ruck, and right on down the list to the last name are all caught up in the excellence of the piece. It's not easy to produce the emotion required knowing what you're supposed to be watching or running from will be laid in later by a computer graphics guy.

But still, production designer Joseph Nemec, III; special-effects supervisor John Frazier who demolished a town and tossed a tractor trailer, with explosion, out of the tornado's funnel; tremendous mood-producing and altering photography by Jack N. Green; and composer Mark Mancina's heroic, driving score are all envelope-pushing elements. Look for all these, as well as editor Michael Kahn's superb split-second editing to demand recognition come Awards season next year.

Helen Hunt is impressive as the driven tornado chaser. She adds yet another brick to the rising steps of women-stand-proud portrayals which, thereby, helps the continuing redefinition of female characters in film. Bill Paxton adds another strong portrayal to his resumé of solid characters. Lois Smith is outstanding as sort of a modern day Oklahoma "Aunt Eller," an artist aunt to Hunt, beloved by Paxton and the chase crew, and she's super. Cary Elwes moves into a publicity-seeking chaser role with upscale aplomb while Philip Hoffman and Alan Ruck provide comedy and excitement teamed with knowledge and respect for the under-financed crew of Hunt and Paxton. Casting director Risa Bramon-Garcia brought together just the right bunch here.

And make no mistake about it, these on-screen tornadoes have characteristics and feelings of their own as performers. If you get swept in by anything this year, it'll be Twister.

Standing tall as producers are Kathleen Kennedy, Ian Brice and Crichton and backing them up as executive producers are Steven Spielberg, Walter Parkes, Laurie MacDonald and Gerald R. Molen.

Wild Bill Wellman Doc Tribute

By John Goff

HE WOULD HAVE BEEN 100 YEARS OLD in February of this year; William Augustus Wellman—"Wild Bill" to co-workers and those who knew him. To the rest of the film world he's known as one of Hollywood's pioneers and one of its best and truest filmmakers.

For the most part of his prolific career William Wellman made films that mattered, films that he cared about and, in his own caring, caused audiences to care about: Wings (the only silent, and first film, to be awarded an Academy Award for Best Picture); A Star Is Born (the original with Janet Gaynor and Frederic March for which Wellman also shared Best Screenplay Oscar, his only statuette); The Ox Bow Incident, Public Enemy, Yellow Sky, The Story of G.I. Joe, Battleground, The High And The Mighty, Track Of The Cat and so many others. All stamped with quality, integrity and class, most of them thought-provoking (certainly for the times they were made). That short list alone, even had Wellman not made another film, qualifies him as one of the film industry's greats.

Why is it then that, when "great" lists are made by the bean-counting chroniclers of Hollywood, seldom does it contain the name of William Wellman? Probably, like most things Hollywood, his lack of reputation is currently built on lack of politically correct holdover from his time in Tinsel Town. Consider the reputation a director would derive today by burying a producer's desk in horse manure and planting the script assigned atop the mound in order to express his opinion of it—for one thing directors choose today, there are no more contract directors; but if one did he'd likely find himself under that heap, or at least on the unemployment line the next day in these times of cell phones and designer jeans rather than feelings.

Yes, it was a different era and a different town, and even though Wellman went on to direct his classics he was labeled a son of a bitch, a bully, and a maverick by the power brokers.

William A. Wellman (c) giving direction to his crew and star Clark Gable (on horse) on location during 1951's Across The Great Divide.

But reputations of wonderfully colorful people who have built a body of work out of exploration and talent, like sweet cream, have a way of rising to the top. William A. Wellman is on his way back having never left.

Written and directed by Todd Robinson and produced by Kenneth A. Carlson, Wild Bill—Hollywood Maverick was created and executive produced and created by William A. Wellman Jr. The sum of the piece reveals a man hungry for life, driven by that indefinable thing inside all those who rise head and shoulders above contemporaries are driven by; respectful of those willing to take a leap of faith with him, scornful of those unwilling to step into the darkness until it's been lit. Wellman was one of those kind of people Hollywood needed in its infancy and who rose to the occasion.

In early talkies, Wellman refused to be locked into static staging and so invented the boom mic by using a broom handle, which then opened up a whole new arena of filming.

All this is learned through affectionate and respectful looks back by peer stars who worked with Wellman such as Buddy Rogers, Robert Stack, Tom Laughlin, Burgess Meredith, Robert Mitchum, Gregory Peck, Sidney Poitier, Richard Widmark, Robert Wise, Nancy Reagan, Jane Wyman, Clint Eastwood and many others; home movies with his family and remembrances of his wife Dorothy; clips of his movies. It's a rich, rich look at a richer career and life and can be enjoyed by not only film historians and buffs but by everyone respectful of a pioneer.

Profile

Don't Call Him Crazy

PEOPLE BEAT THEIR HEADS against the wall, have their heads examined, and, perish the thought, blow their heads off trying to hook up a deal in the town of tarnished tinsel dreams. But newcomer Tom Wright may pull off the hat trick by turning his script that became a stageplay into a movie.

Wright's creative muse known as Call Boy was recently staged successfully at the Beverly Hills Playhouse, where some of Hollywood's development people and other industry insiders came to see the work which was also produced and directed by Wright.

The Coker Productions play, executive produced by retired international banker Josef Hoch, is about the lives of two high-priced male escorts whose fast lucrative careers lead them down a path of drugs, alcohol, lies and deceit.

"There seems to be so much mentioned in the media about call girl services, so I wanted to show that men also are involved in this type of profession which has been around for hundreds of years, but not much is known about it," explains Wright, who says that Call Boy was one several projects which he considered for his directorial and production debut.

The Los Angeles-based writer says that the four performance run at the Beverly Theater has served as a calling card for the industry, and that a group of investors, led by Hoch, are gathering money to mount a film version of the play for presentation at next year's Sundance Film Festival. The production might also mount a road show.

"I've known Josef for years...he was the only one who felt comfortable with the project and his belief in me and my abilities was the reason he invested in my ideal and made it a reality," Wright says.

two Mimi Ibarra compositions, "A Mi Modo" and "Mendigo de Amor."

Twenty-one year-old mariachi vocalist, Beatriz Montes, made quite an impression at the recent AT&T Festival Broadway in L.A. Billed as "the new ranchera voice," the singer was backed by the local Mariachi Latino on the tiny Target stage. Montes possesses an amazing natural talent as a female mariachi vocalist. All twelve numbers are thoroughly entertaining, in particular, the first promotional single, "Cuanto Cuesta un Corazón." Look for this rising star on the biggest stage at next year's festivities.

■ CLARA NUNES: Com...Vida (EMI-Odeon, 37233) Producer: Paul César Pinheiro and José Milton. BRAZILIAN-SAMBA.

The late singer, Clara Nunes, was one of Brazil's most beloved interpreters of the popular samba genre. Her unexpected death in 1982 shocked her nation. Today, Nunes' work is revisited by many of the artists who wrote for her. New vocals in duet were edited in under the watchful eye of co-producer Paul César Pinheiro who was also her husband.

The album features Joao Bosco, Chico Buarque, Nan Caymmi, Gilberto Gil, Milton Nascimento, Elba Ramalho, Martinho da Vila, Paulinho da Viola, and others.

PICK OF THE WEEK

LUCRECIA

■ LUCRECIA: Prohibido (Magic Music, 0026-3) Producer: Francis Cabezas. TROPICAL-SALSA.

Lucrecia has been named Spain's favorite Cuban singer. Unfortunately for them, she now belongs to the Salseros of the world. Her second outing, "Prohibido," exudes as much tropical heat as a mid-day sun over Havana where she was born. The singer-pianist-arranger now lives in Barcelona with her musician/fireman love interest. The ex-member of Orquesta Anacaona, a Cuban all-female band, Lucrecia has been enchanting Basque and Catalan audiences for the past five years. New fans will come to enjoy the incredible versatility and dynamic performance Lucrecia clearly emanates throughout this album. One number, "La Noche de la Iguana," reflects a haunting socio-political message about the singer's native country. Lucrecia's music will undoubtedly delight you as it will challenge your other emotions. Just say "Ole, Lucrecia!"

Single Reviews By Wendy Newcomer

The purest voice in country music has finally pierced the airwaves with her first single in almost two years. Bogguss' title cut from her new album is a fresh return that should reassure fans that she's still right in step with country radio.

Parnell's music always gets its energy from slide guitar and sweat, and this is no exception. "Givin' Water" is expertly written with just the right amount of humor and history to make it an instant greatest hit.

■ SHANIA TWAIN: "No One Needs To Know" (Mercury MNCD 115)

Twain's better half sure knows how to write a hit country song. The single should be considered a duet, as "Mut" Lange provides matching harmony vocals to Twain's always-charming lead. "No One Needs To Know" is tailor-made for the girl wonder with the album that won't quit.

■ WADE HAYES: "On A Good Night" (Columbia/DKC CSK 78312)

Hayes' honey-warm singing is still a pleasure to listen to—it's clear that he's starting to settle in comfortably with his voice and what it can do. Unfortunately, this single sounds too much like everything else presently being sung by male twentysomethings.

PICK OF THE WEEK

■ GRETCHEN PETERS: "I Ain't Ever Satisfied" (Imprint 10000)

At this point in her career, Peters is better known as the writer behind hits like "Independence Day" and "You Don't Even Know Who I Am." Peters' debut as an artist came with the stirring ballad, "When You Are Old," which some radio has refused to drop. But for her just released second single, she takes on the work of another well-known troubadour, Steve Earle. Peters has included "I Ain't Ever Satisfied" in her live show for years, and she effectively transfers her delicate but defiant vocal to disc in a powerful performance.

NAMA Issues New Certified Listing Book

CHICAGO—For almost 40 years, the vending industry has had a voluntary machine evaluation program to enable equipment manufacturers to build machines in conformity with U.S. Public Health Service (USPHS) sanitary requirements.

From only a dozen or so manufacturers and their machines listed in the first evaluation book, the program has grown to presently include more than 50 manufacturers with hundreds of different models of vending machines listed in the current book which has just been published by the National Automatic Merchandising Association.

The machine evaluation program allows vending operators, customers, public health, military and other user groups to identify those machines that meet a voluntary industry standard. Called the "NAMA Standard for the Sanitary Design and Construction of Food and Beverage Vending Machines," it was developed by and is kept current with the active participation of NAMA's Automatic Merchandising Health-Industry Council (AMHIC), comprising state and federal regulatory officials, vending operators, machine manufacturers and industry representatives.

The 1996-97 edition of the Listing of Certified Food and Beverage Vending Machines includes a full listing of each manufacturer's certified models and the dates they first were certified to meet the requirements of the standard. The listing book is published every other year with supplements issued for new models periodically.

Manufacturers who voluntarily participate in the program have their models tested initially and then annually by independent evaluators contracted by NAMA and AMHIC. After passing the evaluation, manufacturers are issued Letters of Compliance for the specific models involved and are allowed to display the NAMA Service Mark on or near the machine identification plates.

AMHIC meets at least twice yearly to review the program, monitor its various aspects, and evaluate the standards. In late 1995 AMHIC established a new category for machines and dispensing frozen food and set standards for their temperature-holding ability. Additionally, performance requirements for refrigerated food machines were increased.

Further information regarding this program may be obtained by contacting Larry M. Eils, director of health, safety and technical standards for NAMA at the association's Chicago headquarters, 312-346-0370.

More 'Valley Gold' Contenders Get Set For Vegas

CHICAGO—The "Valley Gold" series of regional matches has been steadily gaining momentum as more and more darters join the competition for cash awards, prizes and a trip to Las Vegas to play in the July 11, 12, 13 North American Championships. The Las Vegas event will produce the four members that will compose Team U.S.A. and go on to Europe to compete in the international championships for the Valley World Cup.

As a result of the most recently held regionals, twenty-six more contenders have joined the ranks.

This past March, Triple Star Amusement of Springfield, sponsored an Illinois competition which attracted players from as far away as Champaign and East St. Louis. Ohio Vending Machine of Elyria sponsored an Ohio match, drawing 720 participants from throughout the state. Thirty Valley Cougar machines were provided for this big event. The Chain of Lakes Convention Center was the venue for a Florida regional, sponsored by Dowling Music Service of Winter Haven. A second "twin tournament" was sponsored by Music & Games, also of Winter Haven.

Over three dozen darters competed in the Kansas regional, sponsored by Horizon Darts of Kansas City. An Indiana match, sponsored by Diltz & Sons of Mishawaka, produced four champions who will be heading for Las Vegas. Silver Creek Vending and Amusement of Taylor, sponsored an Arizona match which offered a prize purse of $1,095. The final regional in this series was held in South Dakota, under sponsorship of T & T Enterprise of Wagner.

With increased participation as well as strong support on the part of operators and players, the 1996 "Valley Gold" is expected to far exceed last year's event.

Further information regarding this program may be obtained by contacting Valley Recreation Products, Inc., 333 Morton St., P.O. Box 656, Bay City, MI 48707 or phoning 517-892-4536. FAX number is 517-892-6513.

dc Talk Amplifies The Good News

By M. R. Martinez

THE UNIVERSAL AMPHITHEATER—LOS ANGELES, CA—It's the kind of Good News that makes the EQs run redline hot. It's a Christian ministry that has found new ways to rage against the machinery that breeds spiritual disharmony and disillusionment.

It's the loud and proud music of recent Dove Award winners dc Talk, who's alternative rock/hip-hop show could easily attract fans of Red Hot Chili Peppers, maybe Blind Melon, perhaps Rage Against The Machine.

But dc Talk is a dove sheathed in a hawk's feathers.

Jesus Freak, the group's current steady selling album, is a reinvention of previously hip-hop influenced dc Talk's musical character, and the nearly two-hour show reflected the harder, more rocky edge that the three young singer/rappers infused into the current album, the follow up to the Grammy Award and platinum-selling Free At Last.

Erstwhile group leader Toby McKeehan with Michael Tait and Kevin Smith fronted a six-piece band that could play a set on the Lollapalooza tour. The connective tissue here is the message of Jesus, which is evident both with in your face boldness and with subtle brush strokes.

If not for the occasional pause for the Gospel cause, a sermon delivered by one group member or the other, and if not for the audience that shouted salutation to Jesus (at one point chanting "I Love Jesus, yes I do! I love Jesus, How about you!?"), it played just like a rock show.

The group opened the show with a rendering of the Beatles "Help," using it as a segue to the track "So Help Me God" from the new album.

In fact the group deftly mixed original material like "Love Is Verb" (from "Free At Last") and "Mind's Eye" with covers of songs like R.E.M.'s "End Of The World" and "Day By Day" from "Godspell."

The trio's voices all meld in effective harmonies, but Tait and Smith repeatedly acquitted themselves as soloists. Tait provided the spontaneous traditional gospel flourish to his renderings, while excelling at both uptempo material ("Jesus Still Alright") and more introspective songs ("In The Light").

The audience, which represented an expansive age demographic—from toddlers and their parents to teenagers and fortysomethings—brought dc Talk back on stage for an encore that included the title track of the "Jesus Freak" album. And after that energetic rendering there was one more appeal by McKeehan to find Jesus. But, for the those that had not been converted, the music was the message.

DCT's "Jesus Freak" tour shares the bill with the group's ForeFront Communications labelmates, rockers Audio Adrenaline, who opened the evening's musical services with as much Christian sincerity as the headliners.

AA's Southern fried alternative pop-rock presentation centered on songs from the quintet's "Bloom" album, which includes the single "Never Gonna Be As Big As Jesus." Perhaps the most successful integration of music and spirit from this group was the angular "I'm Not The King."

But according to dc Talk and Audio Adrenaline, He was definitely in the house.
