Carbohydrate Chemistry Vol. 19 Part I

"We can wholeheartedly support this series and recommend both this volume and the series as a whole as an essential part of the library of all practical carbohydrate workers. Our laboratories would find it difficult to review the whole of this field without the aid of this series."
– British Polymer Journal, reviewing Vol. 18 Part I.

From Vol. 14 onwards 'Carbohydrate Chemistry' has been split into two parts: Part I Mono, Di, and Tri saccharides and Their Derivatives, Part II Macromolecules. Since Vol. 19 Part I has been renamed: Monosaccharides, Disaccharides, and Specific Oligosaccharides.

This volume is a review of the literature published during 1985.
