

PCCP Nanoscience and Nanotechnology themed issues

A unique and timely series of special issues from PCCP

Tim Jones

Paul Mulvaney

Philip Bartlett

Guest editors Philip Bartlett, Paul Mulvaney and Tim Jones bring you a superb mix of urgent communications, full research papers and key reviews focusing on the physico-chemical aspects of nanoscience. Published in selected printed issues of PCCP over the coming months and collected together on a dedicated webpage, explore the exciting and expanding world of nanoscience and nanotechnology with PCCP.

According to the editors, PCCP is the natural place to publish these special edition papers,

"Our aim is to provide a snapshot of the current state of play, to highlight some of the exciting multidisciplinary work being done, to show you some of the breathtaking technology that is evolving from basic nanoscience and to illustrate that the science action is still in basic chemistry and physics."

One small step for Soft Matter...

...one giant leap for interdisciplinary research

Launched: June 2005

Its mission: To provide an interdisciplinary platform for the exchange of ideas on soft matter

The crew: Piloted by Carol Stanier, Editor, and Ullrich Steiner, Chairman of the Editorial Board, bringing together leading international scientists

Flight schedule: Stage I – Launch; Stage II – Separation; Stage III – Exploring new territories

Soft Matter has enjoyed stellar success since launch. The next stage in its journey takes place in January 2007 when Soft Matter will separate from its host journal, Journal of Materials Chemistry, to take flight as a solo publication.

To ensure that you continue to read the very best in soft matter research recommend Soft Matter to your librarian today!
