The Analyst

Not just an analytical chemistry
journal

The Analyst is the journal of choice for publishing urgent new work of the highest quality in analytical, bioanalytical and detection science.

- High profile and cited in MEDLINE, Impact factor: 3.198[†]
- Immediacy index 0.925 - highest ranked general analytical chemistry journal*
- Fastest publication times in the field, typically 50 days for urgent communications and <90 days for full papers
- Contains the i-section in every issue – a dynamic mix of reviews, overviews and trends on selected topics
