

There is an easier way to keep up with research in your field...

An integral part of managing your career as a scientist is staying on top of the news and developments in your field of research and related areas. A good knowledge of your industry is a key component to your success, but finding the time to keep up with the latest research news can pose the greatest challenge.

The solution? By signing up for e-alerts from one of our free news services, you can receive updates about newsworthy and significant research appearing in RSC journals in a quick and easily digestible monthly alert.

Free access. From each news item you can link directly to the source research paper, which is completely free to access and download for a limited period.

New tools to help you. In addition to research news, our news services also feature

- Instant insights – whirlwind tours of exciting research areas you should know about
- Interviews – leading scientists share their opinions

Faced with questions?

Can I search by structure to find articles?

Are there any related articles on this topic?

What groups and relationships are there for this compound?

Is there any Patent information?

Can I download files of these structures?

What's the definition of that term?

Looking for answers?

Use RSC Prospect enhanced HTML journal articles

Linking together related articles by subject ontologies and identified compounds, RSC Prospect enhanced HTML articles also provide you with definitions, synonyms, structures and RSS feeds. We've now introduced a structure and sub-structure searching function, widened the compound identifiers to include groups and relationships via the ChEBI (Chemical Entities of Biological Interest) ontology, and included additional features such as an Experimental Data Checker to allow downloading of data for analysis of results. Links to patent information and to compounds in PubChem have also been added.

Hailed as the future of publishing, we add computer readable meaning to our journal articles by applying internationally recognised labels and conventions. We are proud to be leading the way amongst scientific publishers.
