Some Aspects of the Metal–Insulator Transition

By Jeremy K. Burdett

299

Photooxidation Reactions of Transition Metal Carbonyls in Low-temperature Matrices

By Matthew J. Almond

309

Aqueous Aluminates, Silicates, and Aluminosilicates

By Thomas W. Swaddle, Julian Salerno, and Peter A. Tregloan

319

1,10-Phenanthroline: A Versatile Ligand

By Peter G. Sammes and Gokhan Yahioğlu

327

The Insertion of Alkynes into Metal–Metal Bonds and Organic Chemistry of the Dimetallated Olefin Complexes

By Richard D. Adams

335

Electrochemical Solid State Analysis – State of the Art

By Fritz Scholz and Birgit Meyer

341

The Thermodynamics of Micellar Solubilization of Neutral Solutes in Aqueous Binary Surfactant Systems

By Claude Treiner

349

Oxidation of Some Organic Compounds by Aqueous Bromine Solutions

By Josefina Palou

It is intended that Chemical Society Reviews will have the broad appeal necessary for researchers to benefit from an awareness of advances in areas outside their own specialities. Deliberate efforts will be made to solicit authors and articles from Europe which present a truly international outlook on the major advances in a wide range of chemical areas. It is hoped that it will be particularly stimulating and instructive for students planning a career in research. The articles will be succinct and authoritative overviews of timely topics in modern chemistry.

In line with the above, review articles will not be overly comprehensive, detailed, or heavily referenced (ca. 30 references), but should act as a springboard to further reading. In general, authors, who will be recognized experts in their fields, will be asked to place any of their own work in the wider context. Review articles must be short, around 8–10 journal pages in extent. In consequence, manuscripts should not exceed 20–30 A4/American quarto sheets, this length to include text (in double line spacing), tables, references, and artwork. An Information to Authors leaflet is available from the Senior Editor (Reviews).

Although the majority of articles are intended to be specially commissioned, the Society always considers offers of articles for publication. In such cases a short synopsis (including a selection of the literature references that will be cited in the review and a brief academic CV of the author), rather than the completed article, should be submitted to the Senior Editor (Reviews), Books and Reviews Department, The Royal Society of Chemistry, Thomas Graham House, Science Park, Milton Road, Cambridge CB4 4WF.
