

THE SMART WAY TO STAY AHEAD!

Overburdened? Too much to do and too little time?
Annual Reports in the Progress of Chemistry offers an easy, inexpensive way to keep up with chemical research.

Annual Reports:

- ❖ reviews exciting advances in all areas of contemporary chemistry
- ❖ surveys all the major international journals
- ❖ provides the reader with a critical overview
- ❖ offers the essential background reading to research and teaching
- ❖ appears in three sections, so you can select just that area of most use to you

Electronic Information for all Chemists

ChemComm

ChemComm goes Electronic from 1997

ChemComm will be available via the internet on subscription from 1 January 1997. It will be accessible through the CatchWord System, which allows access to data either via the contents pages, or by searching for key words within issues (every word in a paper is searchable). Papers can be displayed, printed and saved to disk for future reference.

A number of issues of ChemComm are now available for you to test free of charge. To find out more about this new service and how to access the test data, please contact:
