

CONTENTS OF VOLUME 12

Number 1, 1983

Tryptophan Degradation During Heat Treatments: Part 1—The Degradation of Free Tryptophan J. C. CUQ and J. C. CHEFTEL (France)	1
Enzymic Starch-Degrading Ability of Meat and Blood Plasma in Products After Processing GRETE SKREDE (Norway)	15
Comparative Protein Nutritional Value of Degossypolized Cottonseed-Yam Flour and Defatted Soybean-Yam Flour Mixtures E. O. OJOFEITIMI (Nigeria)	25
Biochemical Changes in Fermented Rice-Shrimp (Macrobrachium idella) Mixture: Changes in Protein Fractions PARICHART VATANA and R. R. DEL ROSARIO (Philippines)	33
Content and Composition of Non-Starch Polysaccharides in Some Norwegian Plant Foods R. REISTAD (Norway)	45
Carotenoid Composition and Vitamin A Value of the Brazilian Fruit Cyphomandra betacea D. B. RODRIGUEZ-AMAYA, P. A. BOBBIO and F. O. BOBBIO (Brazil)	61
Technical Note Proximate Composition and Chemical Assay of the Methionine, Lysine and Tryptophan Concentrations of Some Forest Tree Seeds F. O. AMUBODE and B. L. FETUGA (Nigeria)	67

Number 2, 1983

Tryptophan Degradation During Heat Treatments: Part 2—Degradation of Protein-Bound Tryptophan J. C. CUQ, M. VIE and J. C. CHEFTEL (France)	73
The Chiral Principles Contained in Structure-Sweetness Relations ROBERT S. SHALLENBERGER (USA)	89
Spectrophotometric Determination of Dulcin (p -Ethoxy Phenyl Urea) in Foods M. VEERABHADRA RAO, O. P. KAPUR and C. S. PRAKASA SASTRY (India)	109

The Degradation of Folic Acid in a Model Food System and in Beer	115
M. J. SAXBY, P. R. SMITH, C. J. BLAKE and L. V. COVENEY (Great Britain)
Interaction of Thiamine with Reducing Sugars	127
L. DOYON and T. G. SMYRL (Canada)
Chemical Evaluation of the Effect of Roasting on the Nutritive Value of Maize (Zea mays , Linn.)	135
J. O. AYATSE, O. U. EKA and E. T. IFON (Nigeria)

Number 3, 1983

Chemical Evaluation of the Effect of Pest Infestation on the Nutritive Value of Cowpeas Vigna unguiculata	149
O. U. ETOKAKPAN, O. U. EKA and E. T. IFON (Nigeria)
Relative Stability of Glucose and Fructose at Different Acid pH	159
R. S. SHALLENBERGER and L. R. MATTICK (USA)
Review of the Concentrations of Anthelmintic Substances in Animal Food Products	167
DAVID H. WATSON (Great Britain)
Isotherms and Package Life: Some Advances in Emballistics	179
C. R. OSWIN (Great Britain)
Anthocyanins of the Brazilian Fruit Cyphomandra belaceae	189
F. O. BOBBIO, P. A. BOBBIO and D. B. RODRIGUEZ-AMAYA (Brazil)
Partial Characterization of a Thermostable Anthocyanin- β -Glycosidase from Aspergillus niger	197
HANS BLOM (Norway)
Polyhydroxy Chalcones and Flavanones as Antioxidants for Edible Oils	205
STANLEY Z. DZIEDZIC and BERTRAM J. F. HUDSON (Great Britain)
Technical Note
The Mineral Content of Some Green Leafy Vegetables Commonly Found in the Western Part of Nigeria	213
O. O. P. FABOYA (Nigeria)
Announcement	217

Volume 4, 1983

Distribution of Potassium, Calcium and Magnesium in Strawberry Fruits in Relation to Breakdown of the Sulphited Fruit	219
ANTHONY M. C. DAVIES and COLIN DENNIS (Great Britain)

Intrinsic Significance of Molecular Aggregation in Sucrose–Surfactant Separation by Dialysis	229
OLUGBENGA A. OGUNMOYELA and GORDON G. BIRCH (Great Britain)
On the Determination of Papaya Seed Adulteration of Black Pepper	241
C. L. CURL and G. R. FENWICK (Great Britain)
Investigations on the Trypsin Inhibitor, Hemagglutinin, Phytic and Tannic Acid Contents of Cowpea Vigna unguiculata	249
A. D. OLOGHOB0 and B. L. FETUGA (Nigeria)
Creatin(in)e and Maillard Reaction Products as Precursors of Mutagenic Compounds: Effects of Various Amino Acids	255
M. JÄGERSTAD, A. LASER REUTERSWÄRD, R. OLSSON, S. GRIVAS, T. NYHAMMAR, K. OLSSON and A. DAHLQVIST (Sweden)
Preparation of Salt-Free Protein Products from Acid or Alkali-Treated Proteins	265
IAN L. BATEY and PETER W. GRAS (Australia)
Proximate, Fatty Acid and Amino Acid Composition of the Brazilian Freshwater Fish Prochilodus scrofa	275
EVERARDO L. MAIA, DELIA B. RODRIGUEZ-AMAYA and JAIME AMAYA-FARFAN (Brazil)
Technical Note
A Note on the Nutritive Value of Amaranth Seeds	287
A. B. OSUNTOGUN and O. L. OKE (Nigeria)
