

Personal News

Professor Tamio Yamakawa has been appointed President of the Tokyo College of Pharmacy. He will continue as an advisor to The Tokyo Metropolitan Institute of Medical Science, but is succeeded as Director of the Institute by Professor Yoshitaki Nagai, who now leaves his position at the University of Tokyo.

Professor José A. Cabezas (Salamanca, Spain) has been elected a member of the Royal Academy of Pharmacy, Spain.

He has also been awarded the 'Premio Castilla y León 1990' in scientific and technical research for his work on influenza virus enzymes.

Dr Winifred M. Watkins has now moved from the Clinical Research Centre (Harrow, UK) to the Department of Haematology at the Royal Postgraduate Medical School, Hammersmith Hospital (London, UK).