ERRATUM

International Journal of Environmental Analytical Chemistry, Volume 35, pp. 219–225.

On page 220 under the heading “Walkley-Black Method”, the first sentence should read: “Ten ml of 1 N potassium dichromate (Baker Chemical Co., primary standard grade) was mixed with about 0.5 g of sediment in a 500 mL wide-mouth Erlenmeyer flask.” The published article contains the phrase “potassium hydroxide”.
