

Publisher's Note

The Publisher is pleased to announce the appointment of Professor A.J. Repta, Pharmaceutical Chemistry Department, University of Kansas, to the position of Editor in Chief for North and South America, the Far East and Australia.

Professor Repta will replace Dr. Eli Shefter, who has served the journal so competently since its inception in 1978. Despite other commitments, Dr. Shefter has agreed to continue his association with the International Journal of Pharmaceutics as a member of the Editorial Board.
