

PUBLISHER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

It is with regret that we report the sudden death of Ared Cezairliyan on October 28, 1997, after delivering a paper at a scientific meeting. Ared Cezairliyan was the Editor-in-Chief of International Journal of Thermophysics since its inception in 1980. Under his expert guidance and careful shepherding, the journal grew to its present size—quadrupling the number of pages published per volume-year. Ared was proud to serve the field he loved, editing and publishing high-quality papers from researchers worldwide. We shall miss this gentle, caring man who was truly a leader in his field.

We are pleased to announce the appointment of William M. (Mickey) Haynes of the National Institute of Standards and Technology, Boulder, Colorado, as Editor-in-Chief of International Journal of Thermophysics. W. M. Haynes will guide the journal now, upholding its traditional policies and high standards. Please send all manuscript submissions and related correspondence to W. M. Haynes, effective immediately (see the back inside cover for exact address).

We are also pleased to announce the appointment of Andreas Mandelis of the University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, as an Associate Editor of International Journal of Thermophysics. A special note of appreciation is due Associate Editor J. V. Sengers for his invaluable efforts during this transitional period. The journal will now have two Associate Editors.

With our ongoing dedication and vigor, International Journal of Thermophysics will continue to serve the needs of this scientific community and will thus be a living memorial to its founding editor.
