GENERAL INFORMATION

Aims and Scope

The recent and projected growth of the polymer industry throughout the world emphasizes the need for the presentation and understanding of reliable polymer property information which can help the designer, fabricator and consumer in optimizing the choice and use of polymers, particularly as engineering materials.

The International Journal of Polymeric Materials meets this need. It also is a journal of record and provides a forum on new and old materials. Emphasis is placed on the understanding of mechanisms and the interaction of engineering properties with chemical structure, morphology, processing papers relating to fibres, composites and elastomers, included. The journal is interdisciplinary in nature and contributions are made by chemists, physicists, engineers and designers.

VOLUNTARY PAGE CHARGES. The National Science Foundation has extended the allowance of page charge funds for payments to journals regardless of the publisher's commercial status. Previously this was reserved for only nonprofit society-sponsored journals. Voluntary page charge payments are now accepted for this journal, and authors may elect to pay any amount up to a maximum of $25.00 per page. Payments will be refunded in the form of a voucher at 100% value of total payment. This voucher can be used by the author or the author's university library for any product or service offered by the Publisher, and thereby can be used to supplement library funding.

NEGATIVE PAGE CHARGES. The principal author of each article will receive a voucher for his contribution in the amount of ECU 15.00 (US $20.00, Yen 3,000), which can also be used to purchase the Publisher's products directly or through university libraries, thereby reducing costs of publications to those authors supporting the journal.
