Scope

Papers and communications should be concerned with the chemistry, metallurgy, physics or inter-related aspects of alloys and compounds or their applications.

Types of Contributions

- original research work not already published
- plenary lectures and/or individual papers given at conferences
- review articles; authors should first consult one of the Editors
- letters
- book reviews

Contributions are accepted on the understanding that the authors have obtained any necessary authority for publication.

Publication information: Journal of Alloys and Compounds (ISSN 0925- 8388). For 2011, volume 509 is scheduled for publication by Elsevier (Radarweg 29, 1043 NX Amsterdam, the Netherlands). Further information on this journal is available from the Publisher or from the Elsevier Customer Service Department nearest you or from this journal's website (<http://www.elsevier.com/locate/jallcom>).
