A similar pulse scheme to that proposed here has been published (Bouvignies G, Vallurupalli P, Kay LE (2014) Visualizing side chains of invisible protein conformers by solution NMR. J Mol Biol 426:763–774). The authors apologize for not having been aware of this earlier work. Regarding the method used for correcting the J coupling effect, the following paper should also be cited as:

Vallurupalli P, Kay LE (2013) Probing slow chemical exchange at carbonyl sites in proteins by chemical exchange saturation transfer NMR spectroscopy. Angew Chem Int Ed Engl 52:4156–4159.
