

Publisher's note

We are very pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Dimitrios Tsikas as Special Volume Editor for the Journal of Chromatography B, starting as of 1st March 2007. As a Special Volume Editor, Dr. Tsikas will be responsible for organizing the publication of thematic volumes in the Journal.

Dr. Tsikas works at the Institute of Clinical Pharmacology at the Hannover Medical School, in Hannover, Germany. At the University of Hannover, he completed his first degree in 1984, and received his Ph.D. in chemistry in 1987. Dr. Tsikas' research interests include L-arginine/nitric oxide (NO) pathways, arachidonic acid cascades, oxidative stress, cardiovascular pharmacology, pharmacokinetics, gas chromatography-tandem mass spectrometry, stable-isotope dilution techniques, and quantitative analysis of biomarkers in human body fluids. Recently, Dr. Tsikas has acted as a Guest Editor for a Special Issue on "Analysis of the L-arginine/NO pathway", which will be published in the Journal of Chromatography B this year.

Please join us in welcoming Dr. Tsikas in his new position, in which he will undoubtedly make a significant contribution to improving the high quality of the Journal.
