ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR

Department of Orthodontics COLLEGE OF DENTISTRY

The NYU College of Dentistry Department of Orthodontics seeks candidates for a full time faculty position at Assistant or Associate Professor level in the Department of Orthodontics. The faculty will join a diverse group of faculty, students, and staff, in their mission to achieve programs of excellence in the areas of teaching, scholarly activity, and service. Responsibilities include didactic and clinical instruction in predoctoral and postdoctoral Orthodontics. In addition, there are opportunities to participate in our Faculty Practice in the heart of Manhattan.

Candidates need to possess a D.D.S or D.M.D. or its equivalent and be educationally qualified in Orthodontics. Eligibility for licensure in New York State is desirable. In addition, a documented history of academic accomplishments in the area of teaching and scholarly activity is desirable. Evidence of funded research, publications, and presentations at significant meetings and forums, is also preferred.

NYU offers an excellent benefits package. Salary and academic rank will be commensurate with credentials and experience. Applicant should send curriculum vitae, statement of academic objectives, and the names and addresses of four references to: George J. Cisneros, DMD, MMSc, Professor and Chair, Department of Orthodontics, New York University College of Dentistry, 345 East 24th Street, 680W, New York, NY 10010.
