Dedication

Professor Peter Williams, University of Western Sydney, was the third in the list of Editors for the Journal of Coordination Chemistry and, with 24 years of service, the Editor with the longest tenure. Art Martell founded the Journal in 1971 and served as Editor for ten years. Tony Rest served in 1982 and Peter Williams began in 1983 with Volume 13 when he was at the University College, Cardiff and continued when he moved to the University of Western Sydney. In 1982 the Journal of Coordination Chemistry published 316 pages; in 2006 when Peter stepped down as Editor, the Journal published 2151 pages in Volume 59.

On behalf of the many Associate Editors and Editorial Board Members who have worked with Peter Williams in his 24 years as Editors of the Journal of Coordination Chemistry, I thank him and dedicate this Issue of the Journal of Coordination Chemistry to his service on behalf of the Journal.
