

Oliver C. Schroeder, Jr.

OLIVER C. SCHROEDER, JR.,
Gradwohl Medal Recipient

Oliver Schroeder is the fourth recipient of the R.B.H. Gradwohl Medal which was established in 1975 by authority of the governing body and membership of the American Academy of Forensic Sciences.

The award is given in recognition of the attainment of exceptional distinction in the accomplishment of outstanding service to the Academy or in a public position, or in creative efforts in the field of literature or research.

Among the myriad accomplishments of Oliver Schroeder, the following are of special note.

- Fellow of the Academy in which capacity he served as a Section Officer and as the President of the Academy during 1963-1964. He has been a much valued advisor and counselor to Presidents and Boards throughout his 33 years of Academy life.
- Past Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Forensic Sciences Foundation, in which role he not only directed the policy decisions of the Foundation but also participated in and made significant contributions to several research projects.
- Professor Emeritus, Case Western Reserve University, wherein he served as the Dean of the Law School and was responsible for the establishment of the Case Western Reserve Law-Medicine Center.
- Author and lecturer on a wide range of subjects to include the forensic sciences. He has been a much sought after speaker at Academy functions.

It is with great pride that the Academy presents its Gradwohl Medal to Oliver C. Schroeder, Jr., and bestows on him the title "FELLOW OF DISTINCTION."

Presented at the 39th Annual Meeting of the American Academy of Forensic Sciences, 18 Feb. 1987, San Diego, California.

Erratum

The book review of Reasonable Doubt by Cyril Wecht that was in the Vol. 32, No. 1, Jan. 1987 issue of the journal was inadvertently omitted from that issue's table of contents. It can be found on pp. 288-289.