

Foreword

This is the third and last special issue of Journal of Global Optimization devoted to a selection of papers presented at the International Workshop on Global Optimization, GO '99, held in Florence (Italy) in September 1999. It has been a great pleasure to have the possibility of collecting such a good series of contributions and we would like to take this opportunity to thank in particular all the referees who helped us in evaluating the papers composing the three special issues. Here they are, in alphabetical order:

Bill Baritompa, Harold P. Benson, Bruno Betrò, Rafael Blanquero, Immanuel Bomze, Jim Calvin, Tibor Csendes, Alexei Gaivoronski, Andrii Gritsevskii, Ignacio Grossman, Hans-Martin Gutmann, William E. Hart, Eligius Hendrix, Reiner Horst, Donald R. Jones, Baker Kearfott, Hiroshi Konno, Bruce Lamar, Anthony P. Leclerc, Muu Le Dung, Alfio Marazzi, Ivo Nowak, Pilar Martinez Ortigosa, Panos M. Pardalos, Roberto Pelillo, Friedrich Pukelsheim, Sebastian Ratz, Edwin Romeijn, Yaroslav Sergeyev, Hanif Serali, Eduardo Souza de Coursi, Alexander Strekalowski, Helene Taraire, Nguyen V. Thoai, Aimo Torn, Bib Vanderbei, Sami Viitanen, Graham Wood, Guoliang Xue, Zelda Zabinski, Anatoly A. Zhigljavsky and Antanas Zilinskas

Without their precious work we could not have been able to obtain such high quality issues. Our thanks go also to the Editor-in-Chief of Journal of Global Optimization, Panos M. Pardalos, and to the staff of Kluwer Academic Publishers, who helped us in many occasions. And, of course, we would like to thank all the participants of GO'99 for their efforts in making up an interesting workshop.

Marco Locatelli and Fabio Schoen
Florence, June 2001