The Social Aspects of Preparing for and Responding to Hazardous Material Disasters

The Journal of Hazardous Materials will be publishing a special issue on The Social Aspects of Preparing for and Responding to Hazardous Material Disasters (tentative title). Appropriate would be reports from social or behavioral science studies (theoretical and/or empirical) on disasters or major emergencies involving chemical, nuclear, genetic engineering, or any other technologically produced hazardous substance. Manuscripts involving comparison to natural disaster situations are acceptable. All manuscripts (up to 30–35 double spaced pages) should be sent to this special issue editor:

E.L. Quarantelli
Disaster Research Center
University of Delaware
Newark, DE 19716
U.S.A.

All manuscripts should have arrived by September 30, 1990. The issue is scheduled for publication early 1991.
