

1. The Journal acknowledges that the volume number 50 was omitted from the 50th anniversary Supplement issue and its articles. The volume number was missing from the initial online version of the Supplement issue but this has since been corrected. The Journal sincerely regrets this error.

When citing an article from the Supplement issue, be sure to include the volume number 50. Below is an example of the correct JLR style citation for an article from the Supplement issue.

Brown, M. S., and J. L. Goldstein. 2009. Cholesterol feedback: from Schoenheimer's bottle to Scap's MELADL. J. Lipid Res. 50: S15–S27.
