Termination of Page Charges

Prior to 1999, Journal of Medicinal Chemistry had a page charge of $25.00 per page, a charge designed to aid in the cost of publication. At the start of 1999, the page charges for this Journal have been discontinued.

Free Electronic Reprints

The ACS now permits free distribution of 50 electronic reprints of journal articles published starting January 1, 1999, via the World Wide Web. By using the Electronic Reprints URL found in a custom letter mailed with galley proofs, authors can link to their article from their web sites and thus allow 50 colleagues to access (via Adobe Acrobat Reader, PDF format) the specific article at no charge.
