

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LOCAL BRANCHES

"All papers presented to the Association and Branches shall become the property of the Association with the understanding that they are not to be published in any other publication prior to their publication in those of the Association, except with the consent of the Council." —Part of Chapter VI, Article VI of the By-Laws.

ARTICLE III of Chapter VII reads: "The objects and aims of local branches of this Association shall be the same as set forth in ARTICLE I of the Constitution of this body, and the acts of local branches shall in no way commit or bind this Association, and can only serve as recommendations to it. And no local branch shall enact any article of Constitution or By-Law to conflict with the Constitution or By-Laws of this Association."

ARTICLE IV of Chapter VII reads: "Each local branch having not less than 50 dues-paid members of the Association, holding not less than six meetings annually with an attendance of not less than 9 members at each meeting, and the proceedings of which shall have been submitted to the JOURNAL for publication, may elect one representative to the House of Delegates."

Reports of the meetings of the Local Branches shall be mailed to the Editor on the day following the meeting, if possible. Minutes should be typewritten, with wide spaces between the lines. Care should be taken to give proper names correctly and manuscript should be signed by the reporter.

President Rising then introduced President-elect Richards and presented him with the official gavel. President Richards, after a few words, adjourned the meeting.

One hundred and eight attended this meeting.

H. A. LANGENHAN, Secretary.

President Clyde L. Eddy, of the New York Branch, A. Ph. A., is heading an expedition by boat to the Grand Canyon of Arizona and other canyons of the Colorado River between Green River and Needles, Calif., a distance of about six hundred miles. The purpose is to make a complete motion picture record; an international news reel cameraman accompanies the expedition and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer will handle the film. The expedition is being financed by Dr. H. A. B. Dunning of Baltimore.
