

The panel, Phos Kai Elpis of the AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF PHARMACY, represents Light and Hope; the woman, symbolic of Hope, leads the invalid toward Light; the lamp on the pedestal symbolizes, in this interpretation, the knowledge to cure. The woman holds the staff of Æsculapius; the invalid follows, hoping that the Science of Medicine will restore him to health.