NATIONAL EXPOSITION OF CHEMICAL INDUSTRIES.

It is expected that President Wilson will be present at the opening exercises of the National Exposition of Chemical Industries, September 20. This event will mark an epoch in the history of American chemical industries. Elaborate exhibits, showing processes and apparatus in actual work, have been provided. Part of the program for the week, following the opening day, are as follows:

Tuesday, September 21—Paper by R. S. Frinck, President Frinck Pyrometer Company, on "The Relation of Chemistry and Mechanical Manipulation to the Evolution of the Glass Industry."

Wednesday, September 22—"Foreign Markets for American Chemicals," by Thomas H. Norton, of United States Department of Commerce. "Accident Prevention in the Chemical Industries," by F. W. Keough, President of National Association of Manufacturers. "Transportation and Shipping Facilities with Foreign Countries," by Welding Ring, President American Exporters' Association. "The Aniline Dye Situation," by I. F. Stone, President National Aniline and Chemical Company.

Thursday, September 23—"Potash," by H. A. Huston, of German Kali Works.

Friday, September 24—"American Contributions to Industrial Chemistry," by S. P. Sadtler, of S. P. Sadtler & Sons. "Chemical Industry," by L. H. Baekeland.

A motion picture program has been arranged by the Bureau of Commercial Economics at Washington. Many of the exhibitors will also have speakers in the auditorium, who will lecture and display by motion and slide pictures the work of their respective companies. This lecture and picture program will be announced from day to day on the exposition bulletin boards.

Under the auspices of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, some eight bureaus in the Department of Commerce, Interior and Agriculture are now arranging noteworthy and instructive exhibits, each of which will be typical and demonstrative of the work of that bureau.

THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF RETAIL DRUGGISTS.

The National Association of Retail Druggists convened in Minneapolis during the week of August 30. The attendance was good and the meeting successful.

Before the annual session President Samuel C. Henry, a lineal descendant of Patrick Henry, was presented with a gavel carved from the wood of a tree on the Henry lands in Virginia.

In his address Mr. Henry advocated uniformity in state laws, advised amendment of the patent laws and suggested a few changes in the Harrison law.

The Chicago Retail Druggists Association through representative John J. Boehm, presented resolutions requesting Congress to place the war tax where it belongs, on manufacturers of war material. That export duties should be imposed on drugs and chemicals sent out of the country.

Chairman Charles H. Huhn in a report suggested that stamp taxation should be so applied that the consumer would pay the tax.

The legislative committee report praised the Harrison law, but recommended minor changes in its application to proprietary medicines; condemned the over-taxing of druggists and the practice of boards of health in usurping powers which the law did not intend for them; urged reform of patent laws and upheld uniform price measures.

It was proposed that the sale of alcoholic liquors should come under the Harrison law and be controlled by somewhat similar regulations. The Association favored the re-introduction of whiskey and brandy in the Pharmacopœia, desiring that these be only sold or dispensed by pharmacists as drugs. Dispensing by physicians was criticized; drug culture, so far as practical, encouraged.

Congressman George R. Smith advocated the passage of the Stevens price maintenance bill but stated that before such a measure can be passed, the public must be educated to understand the benefits of such regulation. J. Leyden White opposed the maintenance of a lobby in Washington, contending that this invited hurtful criticism from opponents of the bill.

OFFICERS FOR 1915-1916.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, M. A. Stout, Bluffton, Ind.; First Vice-president, Sol, Eckstein, Milwaukee; Second Vice-president, W. H. Cousins, Dallas; Third Vice-president, L. T. Dunning, Sioux Falls, S. D.; Secretary, Thomas Potts, Chicago; Treasurer, Grant Stevens, Detroit; members chosen for a three-year term on the Executive Committee: Charles H. Huhn, Minneapolis, and Charles Harding, of Cincinnati.

THE WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION N. A. R. D.

The Women's Organization of the National Association of Retail Druggists elected Mrs. F. E. McBride, of Youngstown, Ohio, President; Mrs. Nellie F. Lee, of Philadelphia, Secretary; Mrs. John G. Otis, of Cincinnati, Treasurer; Mrs. J. F. Waterhouse, of Boston, to preside over the Executive Committee.

The meeting place for next year's convention is left with the Executive Committee.

A man went into a druggist's shop and asked for something to cure a headache. The druggist held a bottle of hartshorn to his nose and he was nearly overpowered by its pungency.

As soon as he recovered he began to rail at the druggist and threatened to punch his head.

"But didn't it ease your headache?" asked the apothecary.

"Ease my headache!" gasped the man. "I haven't got any headache. It's my wife that's got the headache."—London Times.
