Missouri Druggist, Bulletin of the Missouri Pharmaceutical Association, Vol. I, No. 6.

The Pennsylvania Pharmacist, Vol. I, No. 1, to be published quarterly. The issue reflects credit on Editor R. P. Fischelis. A timely editorial is entitled "Who Gets the Credit." We quote a few lines of this message:

"The day on which pharmacy reaches the degree of 'bigness' which will recognize accomplishment by the body pharmaceutic as paramount to accomplishment by any individual organization in that body, will mark the birthday of a new pharmacy—one which will wield a powerful influence among professional bodies. * * * There never was greater need for the pharmaceutical interests to be 'big' than there is right now. We want a pharmaceutical corps in the army. If we get it there will be plenty of credit to go around. Our national, state and local associations should realize this and work harmoniously, unitedly and everlastingly until the big object is accomplished."

Sun Dial Address.—At the celebration of New Year's Day, 1918, at Girard College, Philadelphia, the Early Eighties Alumni Association presented their Alma Mater with a Sun dial as their Memorial, when this address of Henry Kraemer, Ph.D., president, was read by Joseph M. McCutcheon, vice-president, on the occasion of the presentation.
