

BIBLIOGRAPHY OF PHARMACEUTICAL RESEARCH

Compiled by A. G. DuMez, Reporter on the Progress of Pharmacy.

All articles recorded in these lists will be presented in abstract form in the bound volumes of the YEAR BOOK, which is issued annually. Those desiring abstracts immediately can obtain them for a fee of one dollar each by communicating with A. G. DuMez, Hygienic Laboratory, U. S. P. H. S., 25th & E Sts., N. W., Washington, D. C.

APPARATUS AND MANIPULATIONS.

Gelbach, R. W.

A simple electric water still

Ind. Eng. Chem., 17 (1925), 1050

Moore, C. J.

Liquid hydrogen sulfide as a source of laboratory supply of the gas

Ind. Eng. Chem., 17 (1925), 1023

PHARMACEUTICAL PREPARATIONS.

Anon.

New uses for old drugs

Bull. Pharm., 39 (1925), 436

Breteau, P.

Observations on the preparation of chlorinated antiseptic solutions

J. pharm. et chim., 2 (1925), 142

Fleury, M. E.

Preparation and assay of Carrel-Dakin solution

Répert. pharm., 9 (1925), 257

Gillot, P.

Mercurial tablets

J. pharm. et chim., 2 (1925), 129

Goris, A., and List, A.

Cholesterin vaseline

Bull. sci. pharmacol.; through Am. Druggist, 73 (1925), 30

Pégurier, M. G.

An easily prepared cuprosodic solution for Fehling reaction

Répert. pharm., 9 (1925), 257

Yardin

Note on antiseptic chlorinated liquids

J. pharm. et chim., 2 (1925), 141

PHARMACOLOGY AND THERAPEUTICS.

Anon.

Adrenalin

"French Codex Supplement," 1925; through Chem. & Drug., 103 (1925), 431

Armstrong, C. E.

Potassium acetate in hemorrhage

Clin. Med.; through Am. Druggist, 73 (1925), 21

Bartlett, K. A.

Notes on stability of glycerite of bismuth and its effect on elixir pepsin and bismuth

Jour. A. Ph. A., 14 (1925), 789

Bertrand, G. and Macheboeuf

Presence of nickel and cobalt in animal tissues

Compt. rend. acad. sci. (May 11, 1925), (June 29, 1925); through Répert. pharm., 9 (1925), 266

Boedecker, Pr.

Pharmacological researches on the new hypnotic-noctal

Klin. Wochschr., 3 (1924), 2053; through Bull. sci. pharmacol., 32 (1925), 511

Collip, J. B., Clark, E. P., and Scott, J. W.

Standardization of parathyroid hormone solution

J. Biol. Chem., 63 (1925), 395; 64 (1925), 485; through Chem. & Drug., 103 (1925), 426

Deicher, H.

Clinical use of a new hypnotic-noctal

Klin. Wochschr., 3 (1924), 2053; through Bull. sci. pharmacol., 32 (1925), 510

Drabkin, D. L. and Edwards, D. J.

Increase of blood concentration by insulin

Am. J. Physiol., 70 (1924), 273; through Bull. sci. pharmacol., 32 (1925), 507

Fabre, René and Simonnet, H.

Contribution to the study of sulfonal intoxication

J. pharm. et chim., 2 (1925), 225

Kunz-Krause, H.

An error in the pharmacological literature of bismuth

Pharm. Zentralh., 37 (1925), 597

Labbe, H. and Théodoresco

Action of insulin on nitrogenous metabolism

Compt. rend. acad. sci., (May 11, 1925); through Répert. pharm., 9 (1925), 270

Levaditi, C. and Girard, A.

Mode of action of bismuth in syphilis

Compt. rend. acad. sci., 180 (1925), 402; through Bull. sci. pharmacol., 32 (1925), 506

Levaditi, Girard and Nicolau

Trypanocidal action of gold and platinum

Compt. rend. acad. sci. (July 20, 1925), through Répert. pharm. 9 (1925), 269

- Levy, M. and Cordier, P.
On the absorption of insulin by the digestive tract

A BUSINESS ARTICLE WORTH READING.

"The Treadmill Type of Management," Printers' Ink Weekly, September 17, page 109 (1925).

H. D. Arthur entertainingly tells how a number of retailers have successfully lifted themselves from the wearing grind of endless detail. Result: Each has a more profitable business and a more pleasant life.—P. C. O.

SEASONABLE DISPLAYS FOR NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER.

Hot water bottles, warming pads and rubber goods.

Vacuum bottles for hot drinks.

Prescription department (crude drugs, mortars, pestles, etc.)

Perfumes and toilet waters. Soaps. Brushes.

Flavoring extracts and spices.

With this issue the JOURNAL begins a department of Business Management. As mentioned in the announcement in the September issue (page 862), it is planned to present discussions of the business problems faced by all drug stores, not alone those of the so-called "commercial" stores. Comments, suggestions and criticisms are invited from readers.
