

Dr. Oliver Kamm, member of the AMERICAN PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION, has been elected President of the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts and Letters.

Prof. Anton Hogstad, Jr., has been named pharmacognosist to Missouri Botanical Gardens. Through an arrangement with the Missouri Botanical Gardens a Medicinal Plant Garden was established as a coöperative project by the former and the St. Louis College of Pharmacy. The botanical work with medicinal plants will be largely extended under the direction of Professor Hogstad who is especially interested in the origin, nature and physiological rôle of drug plant constituents.

Edward S. Sater, formerly engaged in A. PH. A. publicity work and in promoting Headquarters project is now associated with the Lambert Pharmacal Co. He will maintain headquarters at Minneapolis from where he will look after the interests of the company in five of the western states.

Secretary J. G. Beard of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association is endeavoring to complete the biographical sketches of the officers of North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association. Only a few more are needed to complete the files.

B. M. Keene, member of the Executive Committee of the N. A. R. D., was guest of honor at a luncheon on January 15th; retail druggists and other friends were host for this occasion. Secretary S. C. Henry and Chairman Julius Riemenschneider were among the out-of-town visitors. Mr. Keene is a former secretary and chairman of the Section on Commercial Interests, A. PH. A.

WEST VIRGINIA BULLETIN.

The West Virginia Bulletin C-5 interestingly discusses the condition of pharmacy and continues its coöperative messages in behalf of the Pharmacy Corps and Capper-Kelly Bills.

OBITUARY.

EDWARD F. WAGENER.

Prof. E. F. Wagener, member of the AMERICAN PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION and of the faculty of the Indianapolis College of Pharmacy, died at the St. Francis Hospital, Indianapolis, on January 14th, after a short illness. Professor Wagener was 45 years of age. He was born in Indianapolis and received his education there, being a member of the first graduating class of the Indianapolis College of Pharmacy, in 1905. One year later he received his degree of pharmaceutical chemist. He conducted a drug store in his home city, served as secretary of the local draft board during the war and joined the teaching staff of the Indianapolis College in 1919. He was a member of the Indiana Pharmaceutical Association, the Masonic fraternity and other organizations.

Professor Wagener was unmarried. A sister and two brothers survive.

EDWARD PRESTON HOLLOWAY.

E. P. Holloway, member of the AMERICAN PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION, and formerly of the Franz, Holloway Drug Co., of Denver, died December 21st, aged 71 years. The store with which the deceased was associated for quite a number of years was disposed of several months ago, and Mr. Holloway retired on account of impaired health.

Before coming to Colorado, Mr. Holloway had been engaged in the drug business at Kansas City. He was associated with Trunk Brothers in Denver for many years and manager of one of their branch stores which he purchased in 1916.

Mr. Holloway was a widower and is survived by an aunt, Mrs. Sadie S. Franz and a niece, Miss Eleanor Ruth Owens. He was highly regarded by his associates and patrons.

SOCIETIES AND COLLEGES.

ABSTRACTS OF PAPERS.

Abstracts, preferably not over 100 words, should accompany all titles of papers when sent to the secretaries of the various A. PH. A. Sections. The officers ask contributors to send in their papers and abstracts in order to facilitate proper coöperation and enable the secretaries to have mimeographed copies of abstracts ready in advance of the meeting.

Papers should reach the officers in time for action that may be necessary for giving them place on the program.

SECTION OFFICERS.

So that contributors of papers may have the addresses of the chairmen and secretaries before them, they are given here; a complete list of officers will be found on page X of the Advertising Section.
