IOWA COLLEGE STUDENT WINS MEMBERSHIP PRIZE.

William Karl Kallman, 432 West Third Street, Davenport, Iowa, won nomination for membership and one year's dues in the A. Ph. A. in the competitive examination in the recognition and description of organic drugs at the University of Iowa College of Pharmacy. The prize was awarded by Professor W. J. Teeters.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA IN- CREASES REQUIREMENTS.

With the school year beginning in September the University of Nebraska will require a four-year (30 point) High School course of all students who matriculate in Pharmacy looking toward a degree. Conditional registration is permitted on 28 points, the condition, however, must be made up before graduation. This makes the requirements to study Pharmacy the same as for entrance to any other department of the University and gives Pharmacy the dignity of university standing.

THE NEW FOOD TRADES CON- FERENCE.

Stimulated by the example of the national organizations in forming a National Drug Trade Conference, the various organizations connected with the food trade have also formed a "Conference," the initial meeting of which was held at Atlantic City during the week of June 2. The announced purpose of the new organization is to work for uniformity in food legislation and in the enforcement of such legislation.

There are many points upon which the interests of the food trade touch the interests of the manufacturers and distributors of drugs and drug products, and no doubt we shall hear more of the new Conference in the future.

An account of the proceedings of the organization meeting appears in another column.

ILLNESS OF LOCAL SECRETARY BURGE.

By a most unkind stroke of fortune Local Secretary James O. Burge was taken ill just on the eve of the opening of the Nashville meeting, and thus was unable to attend the sessions of the convention for which he had labored so unremittingly to arrange for.

To the delight of the members, however, Mr. Burge was able, before the end of the convention, to appear in the lobby of the hotel to receive the sympathy and good wishes of his friends.

The duties of the Local Secretary were ably discharged by Professor E. A. Ruddiman, who assumed the burden in addition to those of his own special committee.

ENTERTAINMENTS AT THE NASHVILLE MEETING.

The women of Nashville proved themselves charming hostesses for the visiting ladies of the A. Ph. A. The plans for entertainment had been so carefully made that every event was thoroughly enjoyed.

A committee of ladies was on hand as early as Sunday to welcome the arrivals and were as careful in looking after the comforts and pleasures of their guests as if they were entertaining in their own homes.

The President's reception was held on Monday evening in the loggia of the Hotel Hermitage which presumably all visitors attended with a large delegation of the local druggists and their families.

The morning of each day was left open for the ladies to do their shopping. On Tuesday evening a theater party was given for the ladies at the Orpheum Theater, the play being "The Man on the Box."

On Wednesday afternoon, from four to six o'clock, a reception for the ladies was given at the Noelton Country Club, the trip to the Club being made by trolley.

On Thursday afternoon the entire association was given a trolley ride by the Board of Trade visiting the various points of interest in the city. A stop was made in Centennial Park, where a group picture was taken at the Parthenon. Following the trolley ride a box luncheon was served on the campus at Vanderbilt University. At eight o'clock the assemblage gathered in the chapel where they were entertained delightfully with a concert by the Fisk Jubilee Singers.

Friday afternoon the sessions were omitted entirely that all might go on the trip to the Hermitage, the home of President Jackson, which was provided by the Industrial Bureau of Nashville. The trip was made by train and trolley. In addition to inspecting the Hermitage, there was time for a pleasant visit to the gardens and grounds. Representatives of the ladies in charge of The Hermitage were there to give us historical facts and notes of interest in regard to the place. Mrs. Lawrence, the granddaughter of General Jackson, was also present to receive the guests.

This completed the program as arranged, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all taking part in it, but one of the most enjoyable features for the ladies of the convention were the many quiet visits among themselves, the making of new friends and the meeting of old acquaintances, all of which was added to by the charm and graciousness of the Nashville ladies who untiringly devoted themselves to the entertainment of the visiting women.

Through these pleasant associations the Nashville Convention will always live in the memory of A. Ph. A. women.
