PROCEEDINGS OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES OF THE AMERICAN PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION.

Sixty-second Annual Meeting, Detroit, Michigan, August 24th to 28th, 1914.
(First Session.)

The first session of the House of Delegates was called to order August 24th, at 8 o'clock p. m. in room "C" of the Convention Hall of the Hotel Pontchartrain.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Clyde M. Snow, of Chicago.

The Chairman stated that the first order of business was the calling of the roll of delegates whose credentials had been approved by the Council, but that unfortunately the Council up to that time had not presented the roll of delegates whose credentials had been approved.

Chairman Snow stated he had discussed in a general way with some of the members the measures it would be best to adopt in the House of Delegates, and it seemed to be the opinion of the delegates in the room, at least, that the meeting proceed with the order of business so far as it can. It had been suggested that the Committee on Resolutions will have but little time to consider proposed resolutions, and it seemed well that the meeting should at least appoint a Committee on Resolutions and receive as many of them as possible from the members present.
