

Conference Announcement

June 2 - 3, 1983:

International Conference on Polymer Photochemistry

An International Conference on Polymer Photochemistry will be held on June 2 - 3, 1983, at the Hahn-Meitner-Institut für Kernforschung, Berlin, F.R.G. The Conference will deal with modern trends in polymer photochemistry. The topics to be covered are as follows: photodegradation and stabilization; photocatalytic oxidation; molecular mobility; luminescence; flash photolysis; photo-initiated polymerization.

Those wishing to present a short contribution (of duration about 20 min) should submit a 200 word synopsis by December 31, 1982. The conference fee is DM 300.— (students, DM 150.—) which is payable on or before January 2, 1983. Further information may be obtained from either of the following organizers.
