PUBLISHER'S ANNOUNCEMENTEditorial developments

We are pleased to announce a change to Journal of Physics A: Mathematical and Theoretical for 2010. To reflect the changes in the field and in the range of excellent work that we publish in the journal, the classical and quantum field theory section is changing to field theory and string theory. On behalf of Section Editor Arkady Tseytlin, we welcome your submissions to this new section. For more information about the scope of the journal, please see <http://www.iop.org/EJ/journal/-page=scope/1751-8121>.

We hope that you will enjoy reading Journal of Physics A: Mathematical and Theoretical throughout 2010 and we look forward to publishing more high-quality work throughout the scope of the journal as regular papers, Fast Track Communications and as Topical Reviews.

We also look forward to awarding the 2010 Journal of Physics A Best Paper Prize. Up to three prizes will be awarded to high-quality papers published in 2008 and 2009 that make outstanding contributions to the field. Please send your nominations for these prizes to jphysa@iop.org and please see <http://www.iop.org/EJ/journal/-page=extra.bestpaper/1751-8121> for further information.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your support of Journal of Physics A: Mathematical and Theoretical, be it by reading the journal, submitting your work to the journal or by providing peer review services. With your help, we will continue to work to further improve the quality of the journal whilst striving to offer excellent services to our readers, authors and referees.

We hope that you benefit from reading the journal. If you have any comments or questions, please do not hesitate to contact us at jphysa@iop.org.
