Aims and Scope

The Journal of Power Sources provides an interdisciplinary forum on all aspects of the science, technology and commercialization of primary/secondary batteries and fuel cells, as well as on their application in important and emerging markets suchas:

- standby- and portable-power systems
- · load-levelling facilities
- · electric vehicles
- remote wind- and/or solar-based power supplies
- · satellites and deep space probes

Types of Contributions

- Original research papers within the scope of the journal
- State-of-the-art reviews
- Short communications
- Letters to the Editors
- Technical updates
- Conference proceedings
- Recent publication lists (bibliographies)
- · Conference calendar
- Book reviews
