

Announcement of JSV Board Meeting at RASD 2010

Journal of Sound and Vibration will be hosting a Meeting* of the Editors, Subject Editors, Editorial Board and Editorial Advisors at the

10th International Conference on Recent Advances in Structural Dynamics Southampton, 12–14 July 2010

This conference is devoted to theoretical, numerical and experimental developments in structural dynamics and their application to all types of structures and dynamical systems. The conference will reflect the state-of-the-art of structural dynamics and dynamical systems in science and engineering, and is an opportunity to exchange scientific, technical and experimental ideas. More information, including Topics, Keynote Speakers, Cost and Contact Details, can be found at the Conference website

<http://www.isvr.soton.ac.uk/rasd2010>

The Conference will be held at the University of Southampton, Highfield, Southampton, UK. Southampton is a city of medieval origin, located on the estuary of the river Itchen. Thanks to its favourable position, it has always been a main centre of trade and its port is one of the most important in the Country. The city is the region's leisure and cultural capital. With major international events, many new hotels, pubs, clubs and restaurants, Southampton is the South's leading leisure destination.
