FIRST ITALIAN MEETING ON CALORIMETRY AND THERMAL ANALYSIS

The First Italian Meeting on Calorimetry and Thermal Analysis, organized by AICAT (Associazione Italiana di Calorimetria e Analisi Termica), will be held in Florence (Italy) on December 17th–19th 1979

The themes of the Meeting are:

1. Homogeneous phase calorimetry
2. Thermochemistry of materials.

Submitted papers will be acknowledged and subjected to refereeing before acceptance. In order to avoid parallel sessions, the Scientific Committee will inform about the form of presentation of the accepted papers (poster or oral communication).

For further information, please contact the General Secretary of the Meeting:
