THE SIXTH POLISH SEMINAR ON THERMAL ANALYSIS, DEVOTED TO THE MEMORY OF STANISLAW BRETSZNAJDER

The Polish Seminar on Thermal Analysis devoted to the memory of Stanislaw Bretsznajder was convened in Plock, Poland on 22-24 September, 1993 by Prof. Marek Dietrich, Rector of Warsaw University of Technology.

It was organized and sponsored by the Institute of Chemistry of Warsaw University of Technology, Branch in Płock; the Polish Chemical Society, Division in Płock; the Commission of Plastic Analysis, the Committee of Analytical Chemistry of the Polish Academy of Science; the Polish Society of Calorimetry and Thermal Analysis; the Ministry of National Education; and the Research and Development Center of the Refined Industry in Płock.

The main subjects of the Sixth Seminar were the dissociation of inorganic solids, the regularities of thermal decomposition and the controlling of its course, and the methods and application of thermal analysis to inorganic solids, polymers, plastics and petrochemical products.

The Seminar was attended by 80 thermal analysts, mainly from Poland, but also from the USA, Bulgaria, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Russia and Belorussia.

This volume contains a collection of the invited and contributed papers presented at the 6th Polish Seminar on Thermal Analysis.
